

Session 7: Embodying Culturally Responsive Mentorship

This week's session focuses on putting together all the previous weeks' lessons and applying them to a mentorship context. We will apply critical thinking skills and our culturally responsive framework to analyze two mentoring plans. We will also choose a scenario to role play with a scene partner in the live session, applying the skills we have learned throughout this course.

Things for facilitators to be prepared for:

Participants will spend the bulk of this session role-playing. Facilitators should be prepared for differing levels of comfort and performance anxiety, and should remind other participants to support their peers by sharing Zoom emojis and giving constructive feedback. As this is the last session, Facilitators should help synthesize learning across the entire course. Facilitators should also end on a positive note by reflecting on the participant's growth and encouraging them to continue implementing what they've learned in their mentoring practices.

Participant Pre-Work:

- Objective 1: Participants will read two selected mentoring plans and identify positive elements as well as potential pitfalls.
 - Objective 2: Participants will sign up to role play a scenario with a scene partner during the final live session.
 - Activities:
 - Document 1: Wilson Research Assistant Guidelines
 - Document 2: McMahon Mentor-Mentee Contract
 - Reflection:
 - What are the positive elements of each mentoring plan?
 - What aspects of each mentoring plan need improvement?
 - How can each document be adjusted to be more culturally responsive?
 - Which lessons or skills from our course are present in each document? Which are missing?
 - Role-Play Prep: Read through each of the scenarios and sign up for one to role-play. Think about how you would respond as the mentor, using the skills you have learned throughout this course.
 - Submission: Be ready to share your notes and reflections during the live session.

Synchronous Session:

- Materials Needed:
 - Role-play scenarios document
 - Role-play sign-up sheet
 - Post-assessment survey

- Survey results from previous sessions
- Access to Zoom and familiarity with creating break-out rooms
- Learning Objectives:
 - Objective 1: Briefly highlight some potential improvements for the mentoring plans from the homework
 - Objective 2: Apply lessons learned from previous sessions in a role-play scenario
 - Objective 3: Close out the course on a positive note through gratitude sharing
- Reviewing Survey Results:
 - Before each session, all facilitators should plan to review the survey results from the previous session. This is so they are able to incorporate any participant feedback into their session and make any adjustments.
- Pework for Facilitator 2:
 - Set all observers/facilitators as hosts (unless they want to be assigned to breakout rooms)
 - Set up screen with 5-minute Google timer, ready to share
 - Set up first breakout room: assign based on sign-up sheet, 8-minute auto-recall
 - Facilitator 2 starts recording, Facilitator 3 backs up at starting/stopping recording for breakouts
 - Facilitator 3 starts recording.
- Note for all facilitators: make sure to rename yourself as “Facilitator” in the Zoom name.

Live Session Agenda:

- Welcome and Warm-up Activity: 00:00 - 00:05 (5 min)
 - Facilitator 2 types in the chat:
 - What seasonal activity are you most looking forward to?
 - Facilitator 1 welcomes everyone and reads off common themes as people continue to join.
- Homework Review: Large Group Discussion: 00:05 - 00:15 (10 min)
 - Facilitator 1 asks participants to raise their hands to share their responses to the mentoring plans from the homework. Facilitator 2 will copy and paste the questions into the chat one by one as Facilitator 1 reads them aloud. So each question gets the same amount of time, allocate two minutes per question, changing at 00:08, 00:10, 00:12.
 - What are the positive elements of each mentoring plan?
 - What aspects of each mentoring plan need improvement?
 - How can each document be adjusted to be more culturally responsive?

- Which lessons or skills from our course are present in each document? Which are missing?
- Role-Play Breakout Groups: 00:15 - 00:25 (10 min)
 - Facilitator 1 introduces the break-out rooms, which are an opportunity for participants to discuss and rehearse their role-play. Participants should be prepared to act out their scenarios after the first break.
 - "In your breakout room, decide who will play the mentee and who will play the mentor. Then, brainstorm how the mentor will respond to the scenario, using the skills you've learned in this course. Pairs will role-play their scenario after the break."
 - Facilitator 2 assigns breakouts based on the sign-up sheet. If an odd number of participants are in a role-play scenario, a Facilitator may even out the group or two "stragglers" (two people who have signed up to a different scenario) to work together in a group and give them a specific number to work on. Facilitator 2 will share the link to scenarios before opening the breakout room.
 - Facilitator 3 stops recording when the breakout rooms open and restarts recording when the large group reconvenes.
 - Facilitator 2 broadcasts a 3-minute warning before breakouts end.
- BREAK: 00:25 - 00:30 (5 min)
 - Facilitator 2 shares their screen with the timer countdown and takes attendance
 - Facilitator 3: Stop recording during break, restarts recording after break
- Scenario Role-Play: 00:30 - 00:55 (25 min)
 - Facilitator 1 will read the scenario and facilitate while Facilitator 2 keeps track of time. No more than 5 minutes per group, so they should switch at ~ 00:36, 00:41, 00:46, 00:51.
 - Facilitator 1 invites participants to act out their scenarios in pairs, one acting as a mentor and the other as the mentee.
 - "Raise your hand if you prepared Scenario 1. You and your partner will have 5 minutes to role play and 5 minutes to receive feedback. When you are not role-playing, take notes on what the mentor did well and how they could improve."
 - Facilitator 2 will spotlight both participants so they are visible by everyone.
 - Facilitator 1 will read the scenario out loud for the other participants and record.
 - Facilitator 2 will keep track of time so scenarios do not exceed 5 minutes.
 - Facilitator 2 then removes the spotlight.
 - Facilitator 1 will then invite observers to share what the mentor did well and how they could improve.
 - Facilitator 1 will then invite other Scenario 1 teams to share if they did anything differently.
 - Facilitator 2 will time the group feedback discussion not to exceed 5 minutes.

- Facilitator 1 will then ask participants to raise their hand for Scenario 2 and randomly select a pair. This will continue until all 3 scenarios have been acted out.
- BREAK: 00:55 - 01:00 (5 min)
 - Facilitator 2 shares their screen with the timer countdown
 - Facilitator 3: Stop recording during break, start recording after break
- Scenario Role-Play: 01:00 - 01:13 (13 min)
 - Facilitator 1 and Facilitator 2 continue with the groups who have not yet gone.
- Closing Gratitude Practice: 01:13 - 01:25 (12 min)
 - Activity type: Large Group Discussion
 - Description: Participants and facilitators go around the room to share one “golden nugget” from the course: “what idea, skill, experience, or skill will you take away from the course?”
 - Facilitator 1 will share their gratitude then popcorn to the next person.
 - “Everyone please raise your Zoom hand (located under the ‘reactions’ button) and put it down once you have shared”.
 - Facilitator 2 posts the instructions in the chat and keeps track of time.
- Wrap-Up: 01:25 - 01:30 (5 min)
 - Facilitator 1 thanks participants for taking the course and reminds them that their final task is to fill out the post-assessment survey. Facilitator 2 posts the link to the survey in the chat.
 - Facilitators end the session.
 - Facilitator 3 stops the recording.

Facilitator Notes:

The Facilitators should spend time writing down everything they observed during the session (what worked, what didn’t, and what improvements need to be made). They can also include advice for the next facilitator to watch out for. Facilitators may use the following guiding questions:

- How did the session go?
- Was there active participation in discussions?
- Do you feel like the learning objectives were met?
- Are there topics that need to be revisited in the next session?
- Were participants fully engaged when discussing their own mentoring experiences or goals?
- Were there times of vulnerability, disagreement, or hesitation? How were they managed?
- Did the conversation about group norms seem genuine and open? Were any important issues addressed?

- Are there any organizational improvements (tech, timing, breakout structure) to be addressed before the next session?
