SI-MI Facilitator Training Program Workbook

Developed for the ROOT & SHOOT RCN
by Dra. Nicole Cabrera Salazar
(Movement Consulting)

2026

Day 1
Session 1: Introduction

Facilitator Structure

Facilitator 1

- Responsible for guiding the conversation
- Validates participant responses and connects experiences to concepts

Facilitator 2

- Runs back end functions
- Monitors the chat for discussion / questions
- Creates breakout rooms
- Shares screen when needed

Facilitator 3

- Backup facilitator
- Helps F2 with chat + timekeeping
- Notes any issues for later correction

ALL FACILITATORS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR KNOWING THE MATERIAL

Breakout Session - Round Robin

1. Break into random pairs

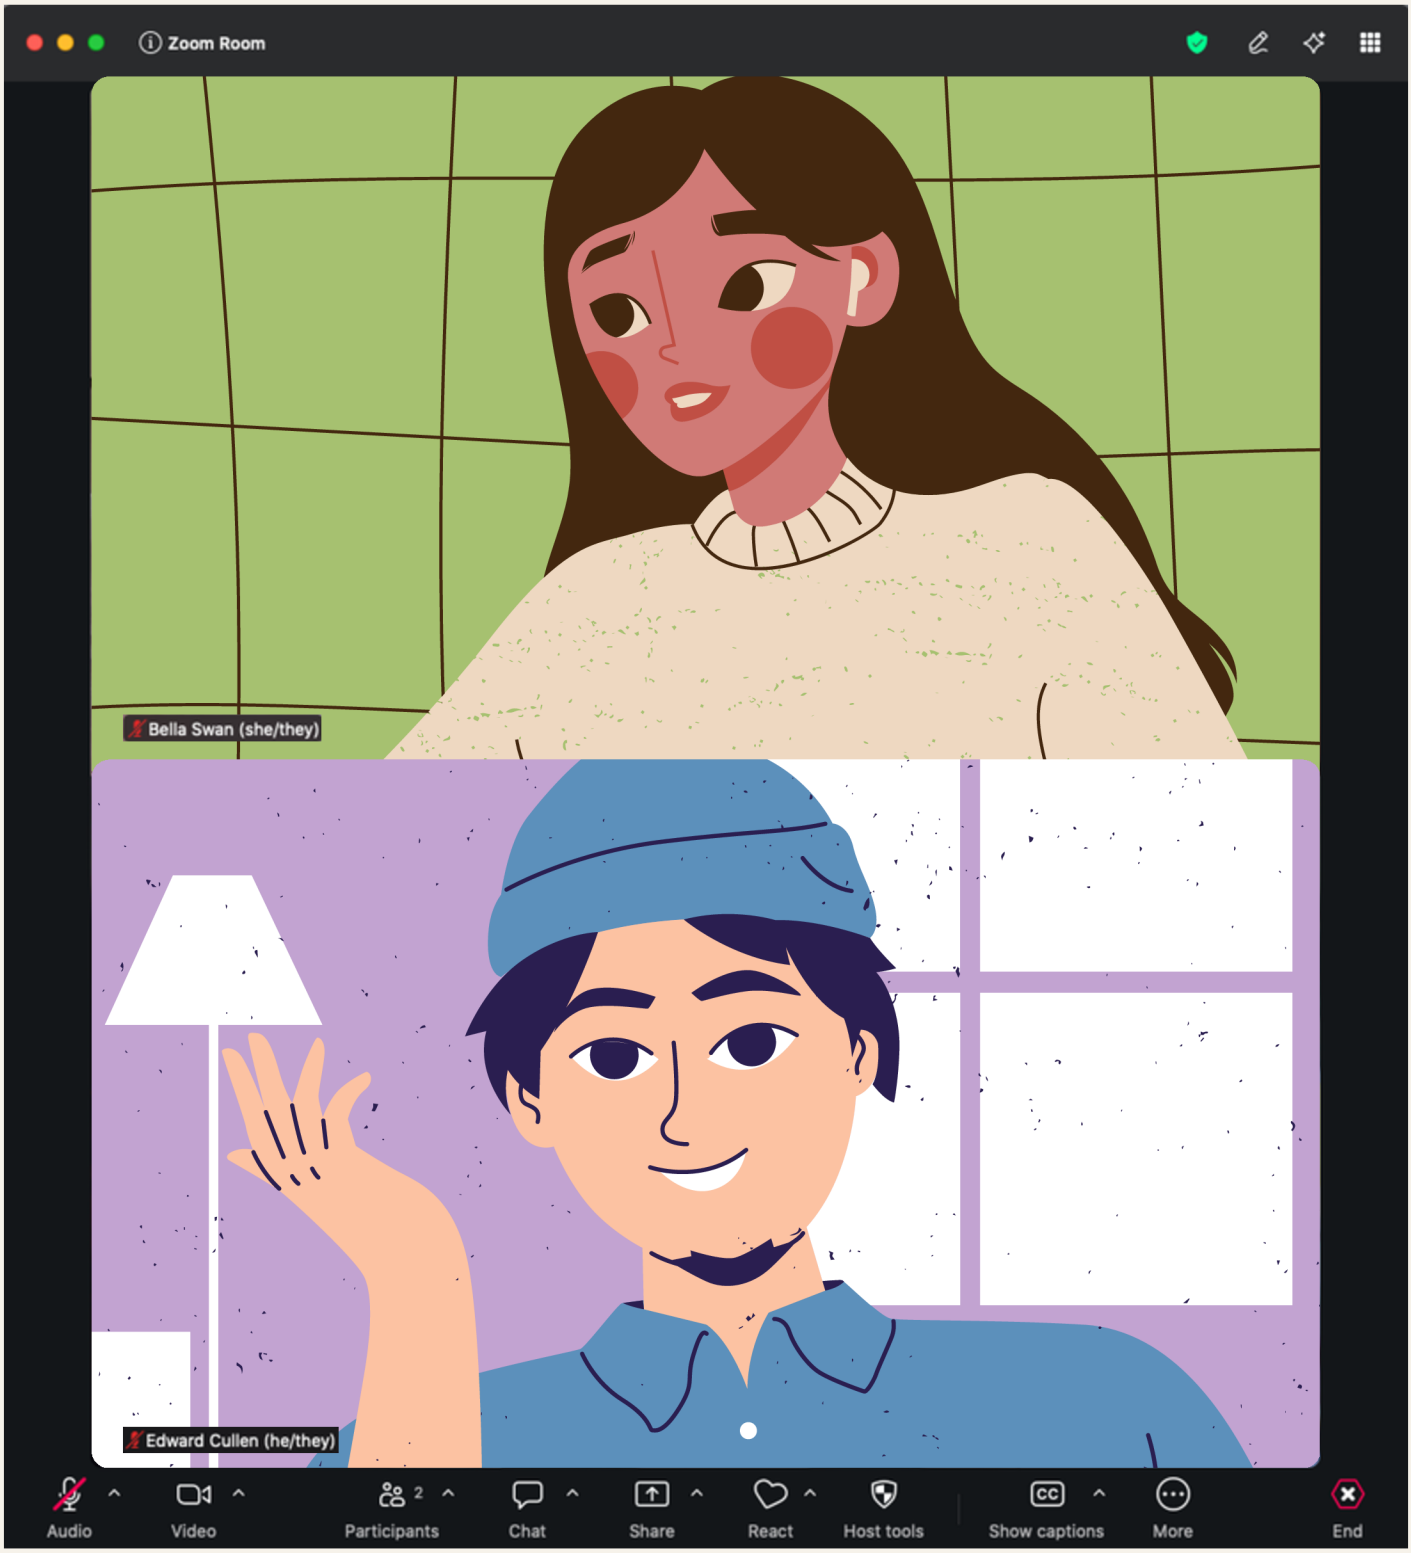
2. BRIEFLY introduce yourself

3. Answer the prompts

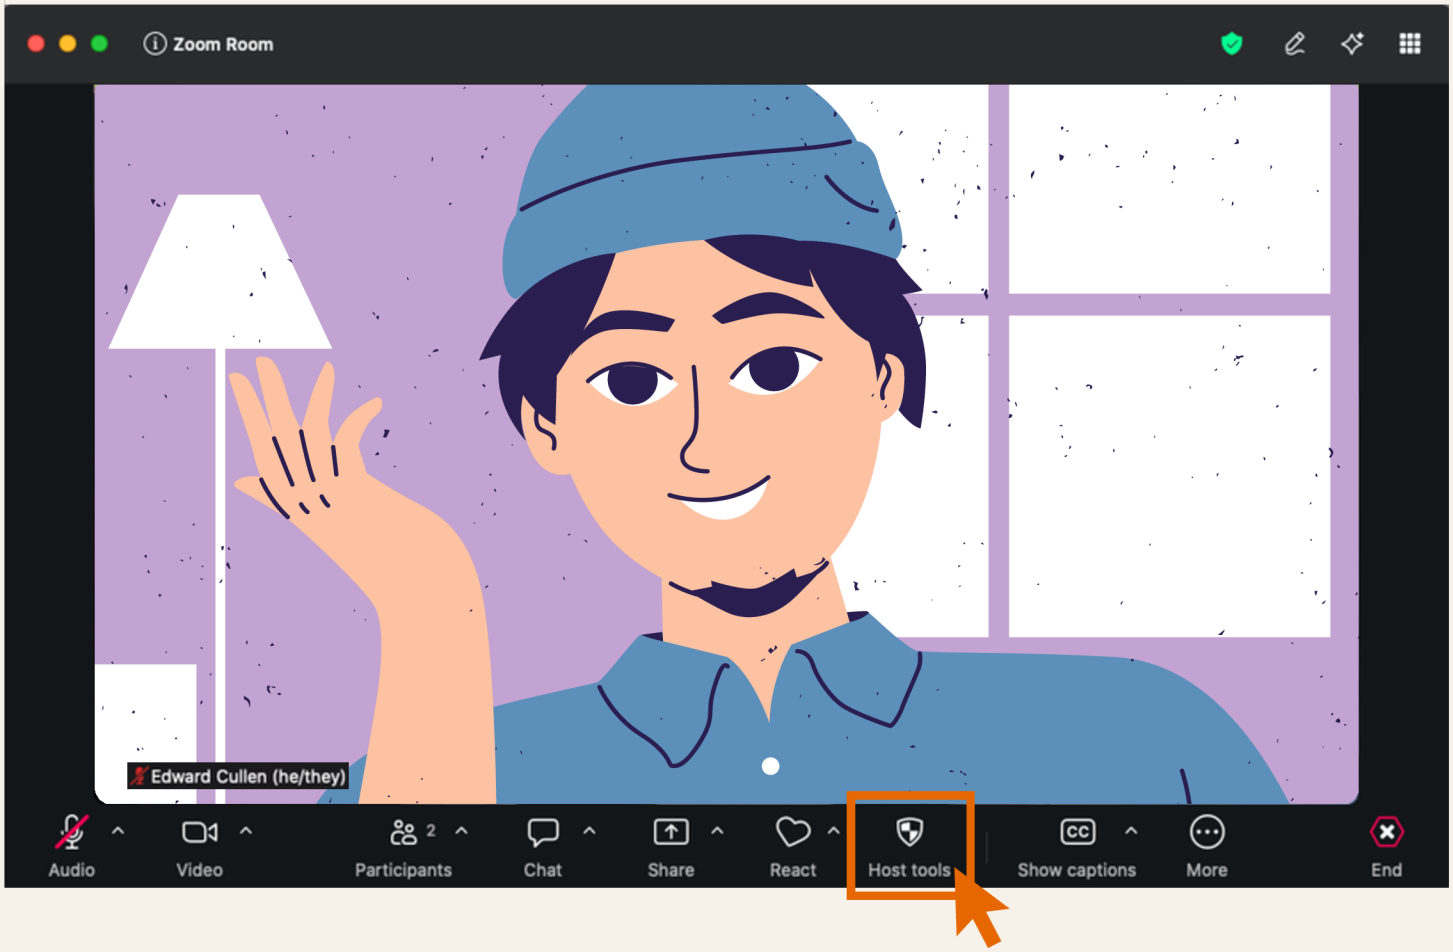
4. Rinse + Repeat

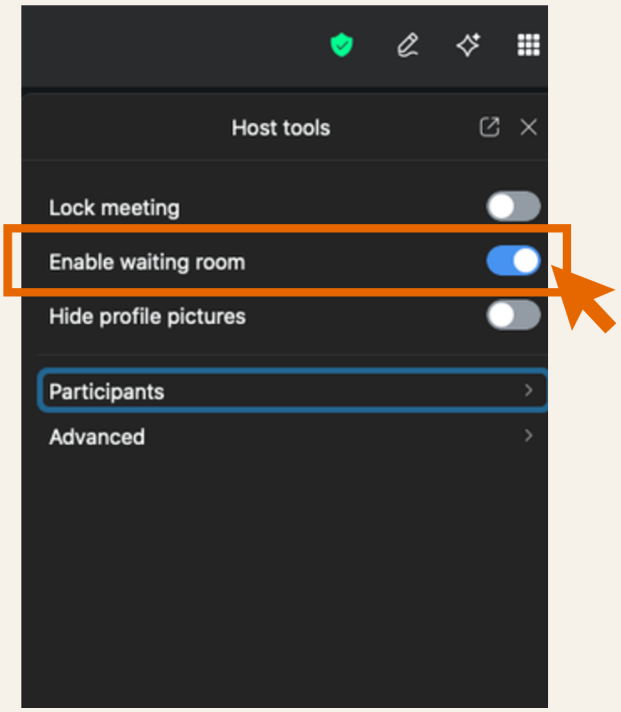
Day 1
Session 2:
Zoom for SI-MI

Zoom Starting Screen

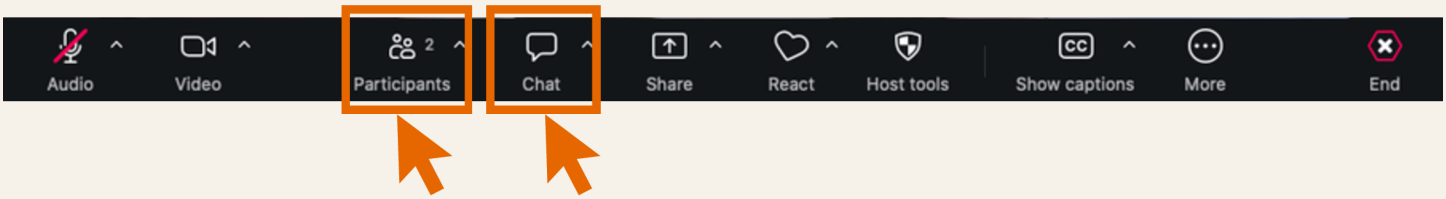


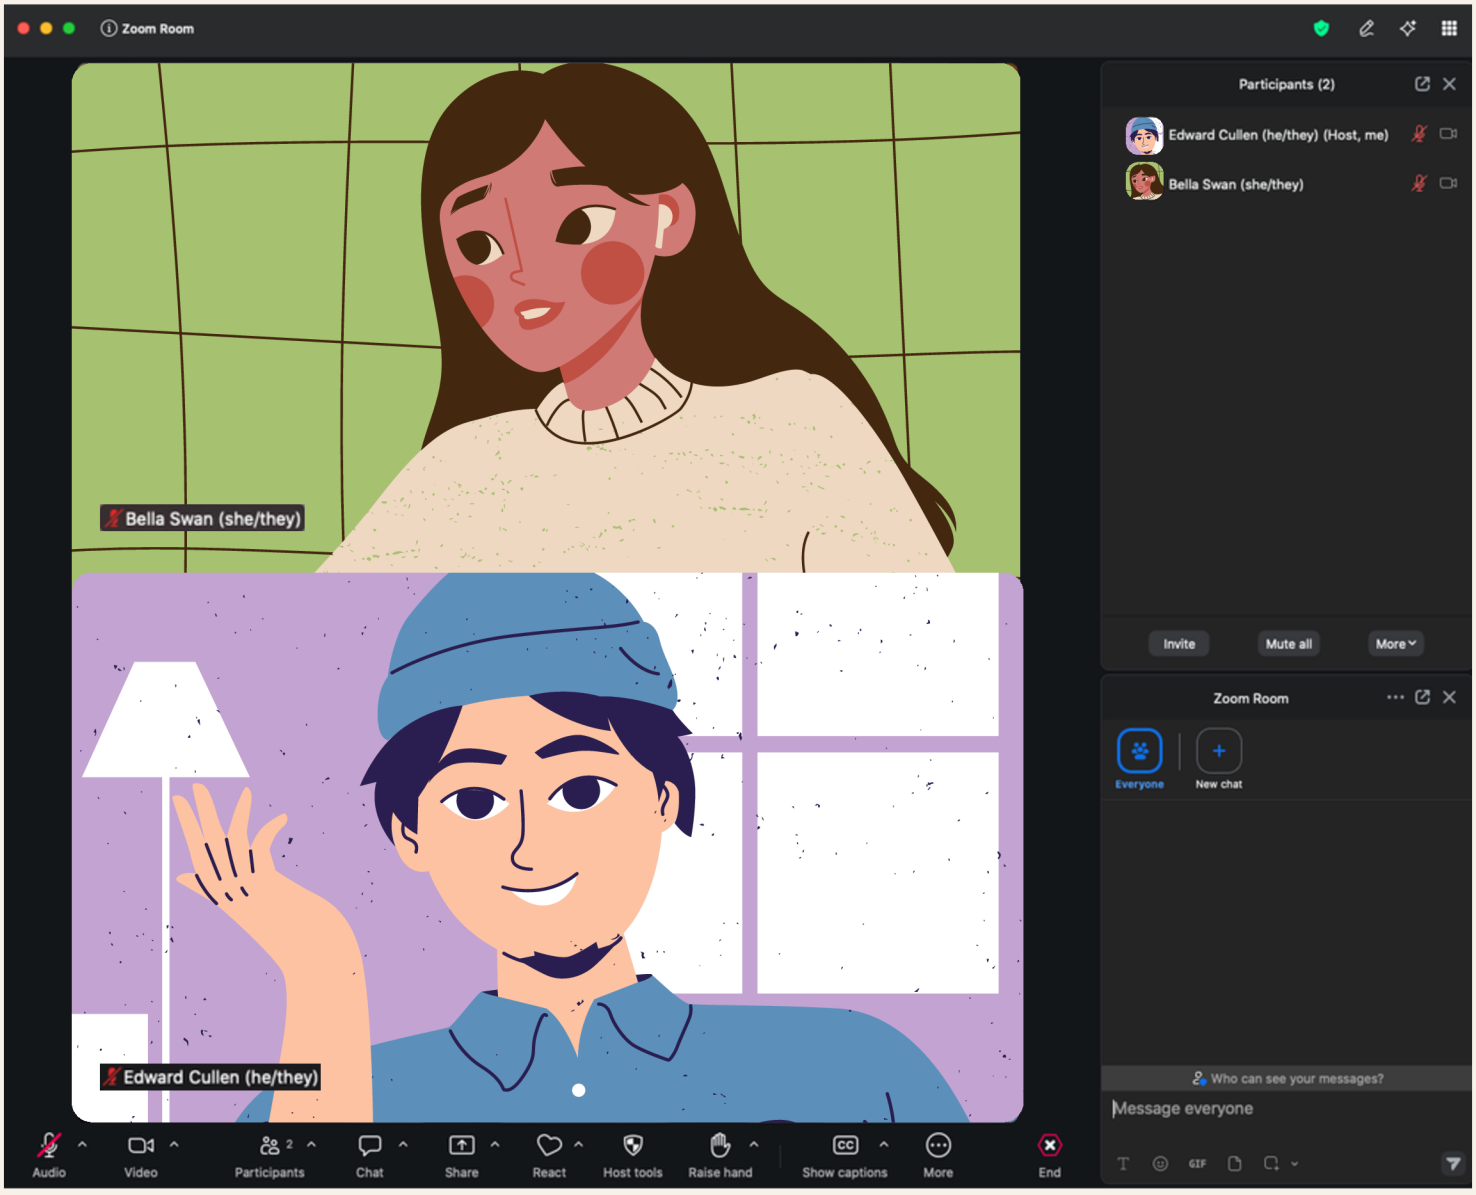
Enable Waiting Room



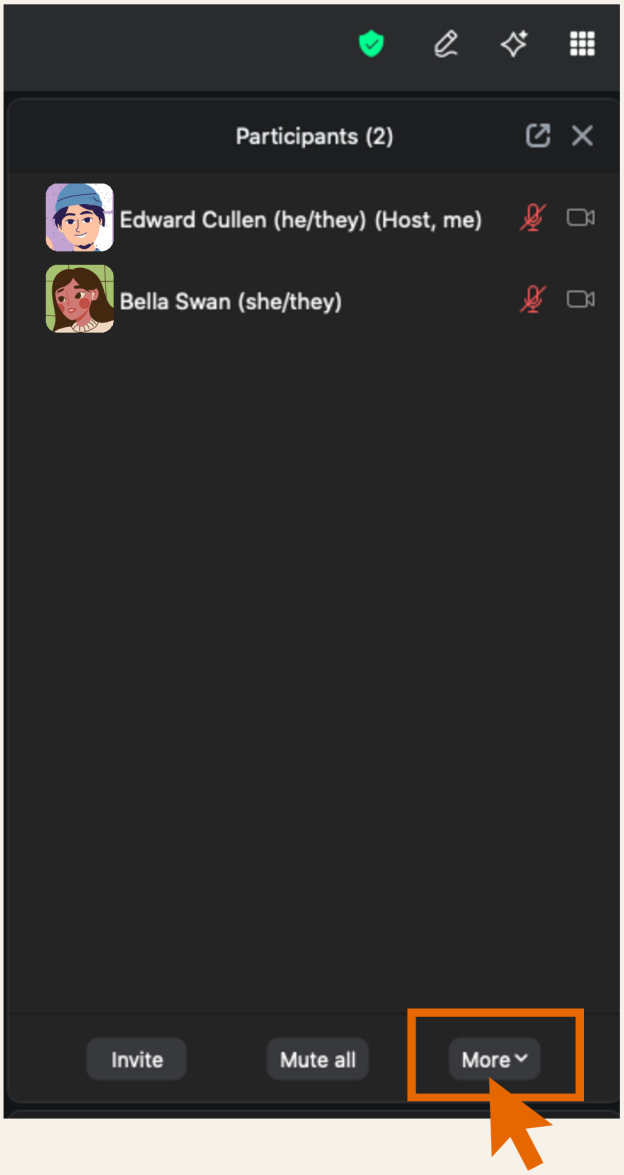


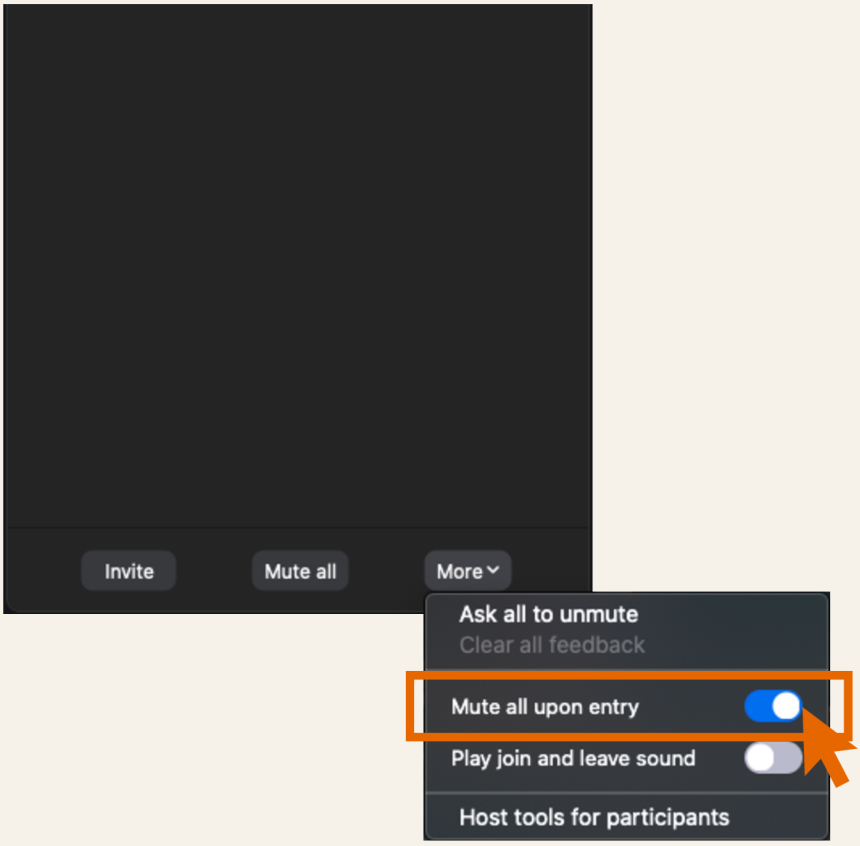
Enable Participant + Chat Tabs



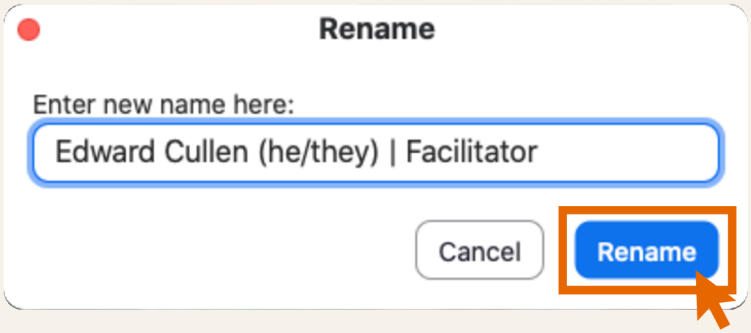


Mute All Upon Entry

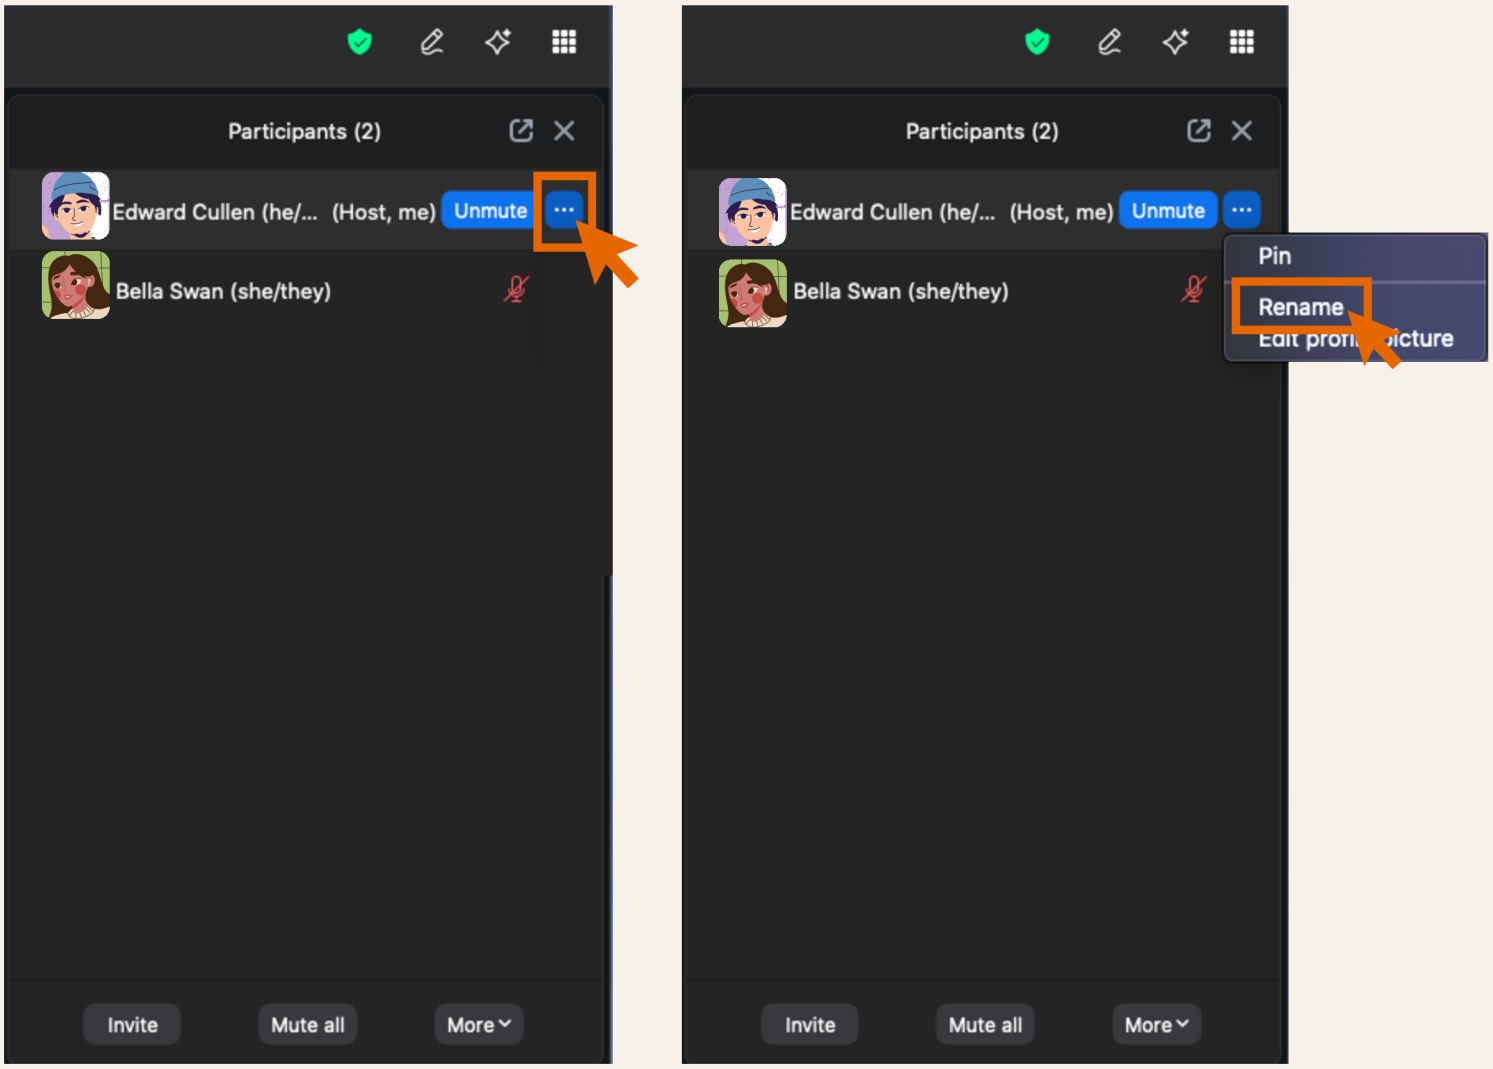


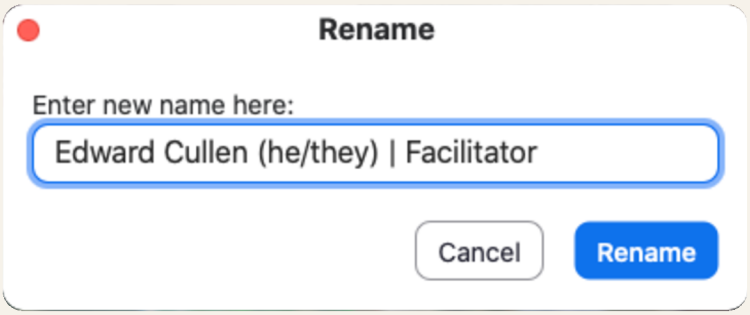


Changing Name + Pronouns (Video)



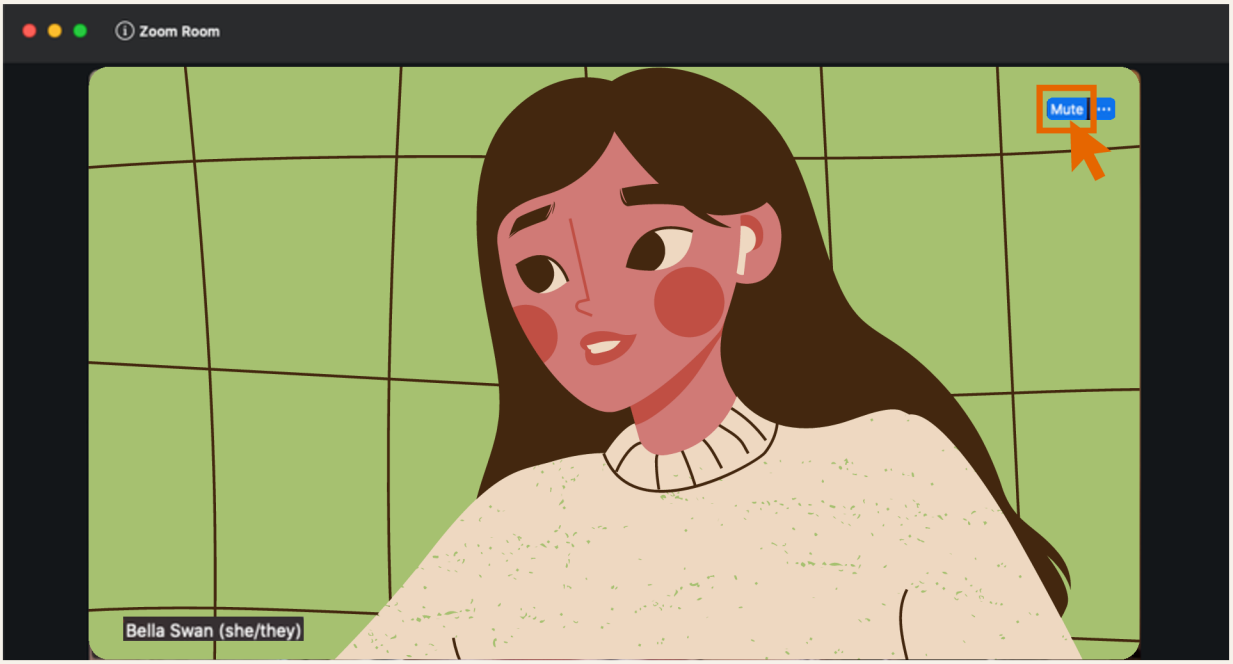
Changing Name + Pronouns (Participants Tab)

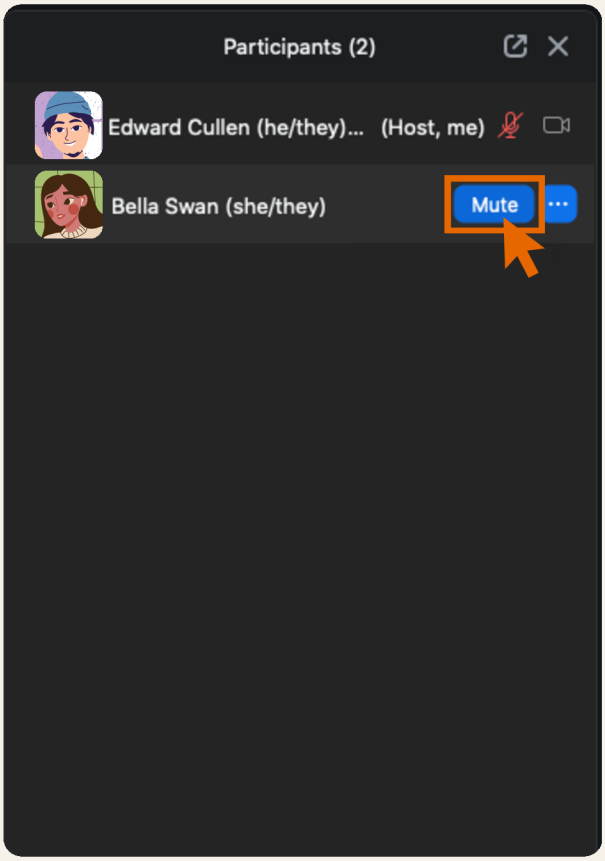




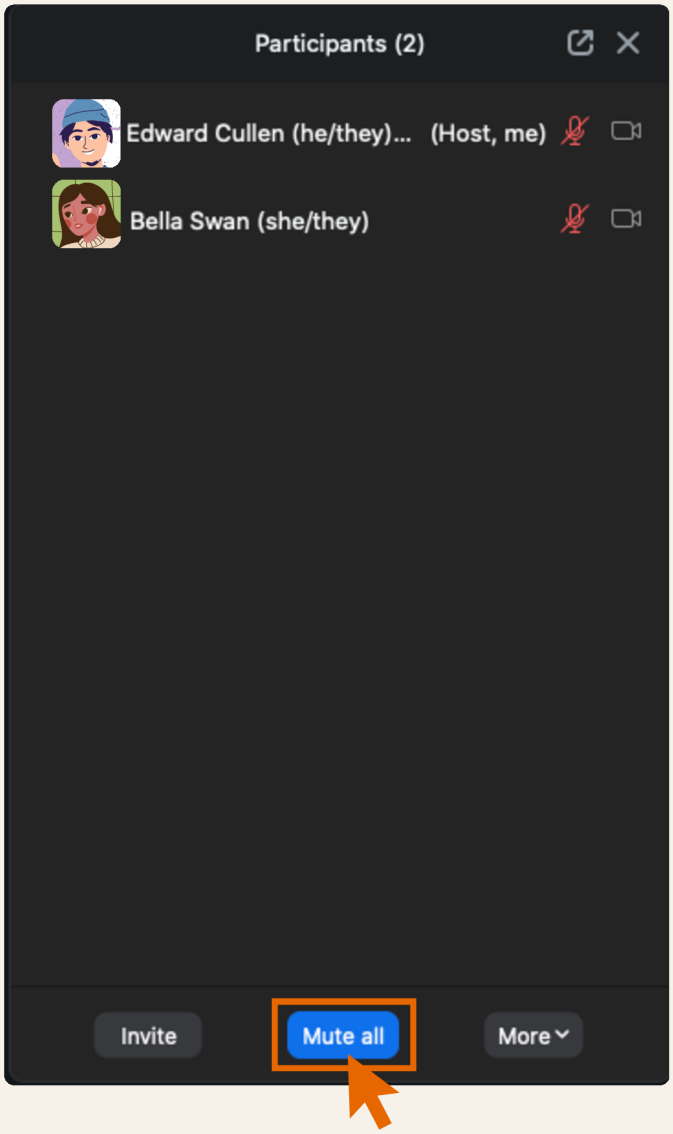
Turning the Camera + Microphone On / Off

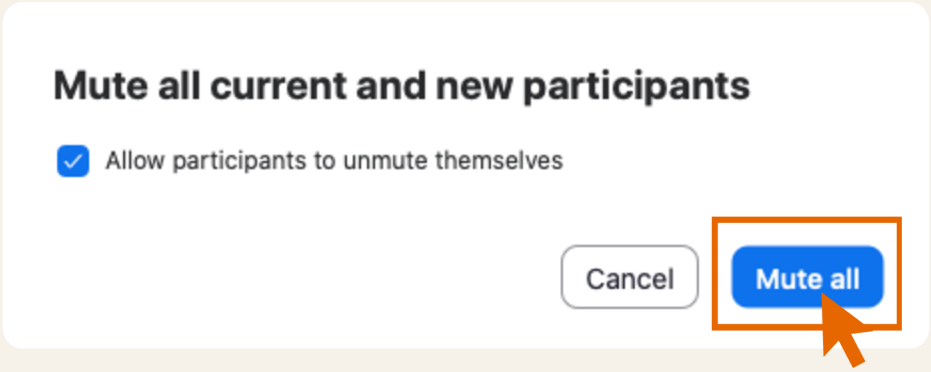
Muting Individuals (Video + Participants Tab)



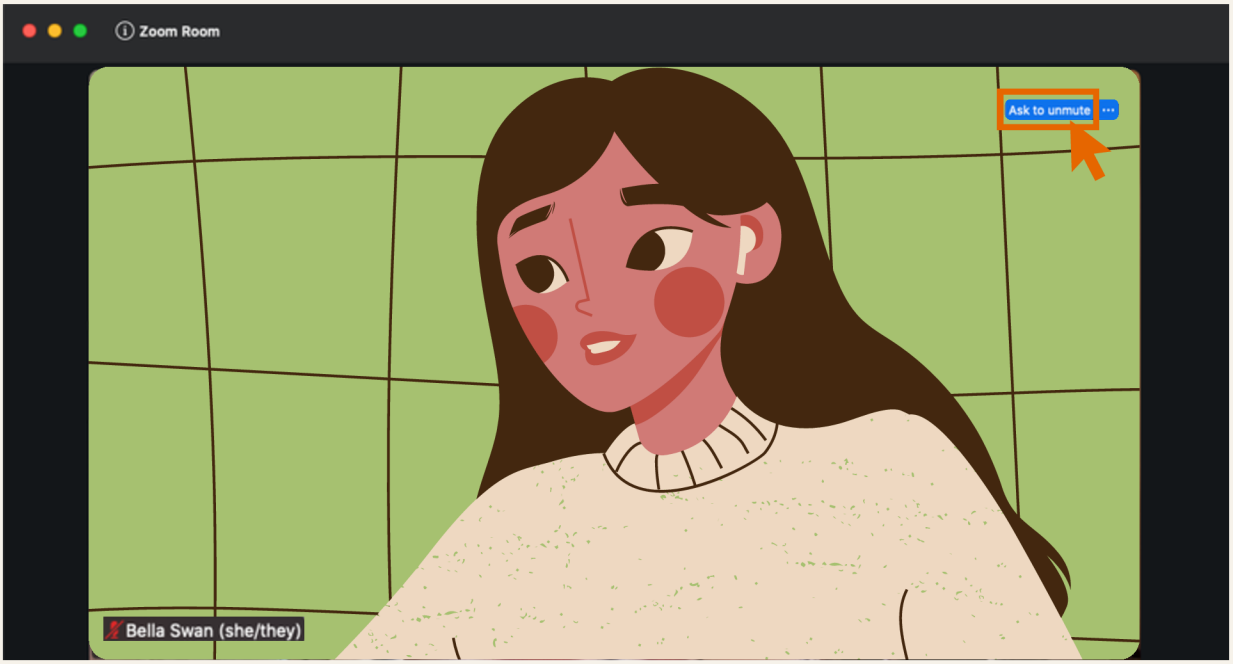


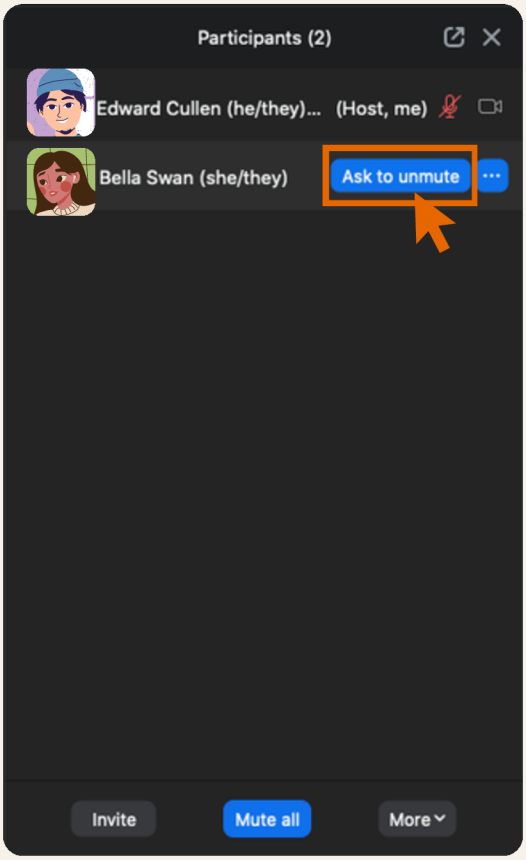
Muting All Participants



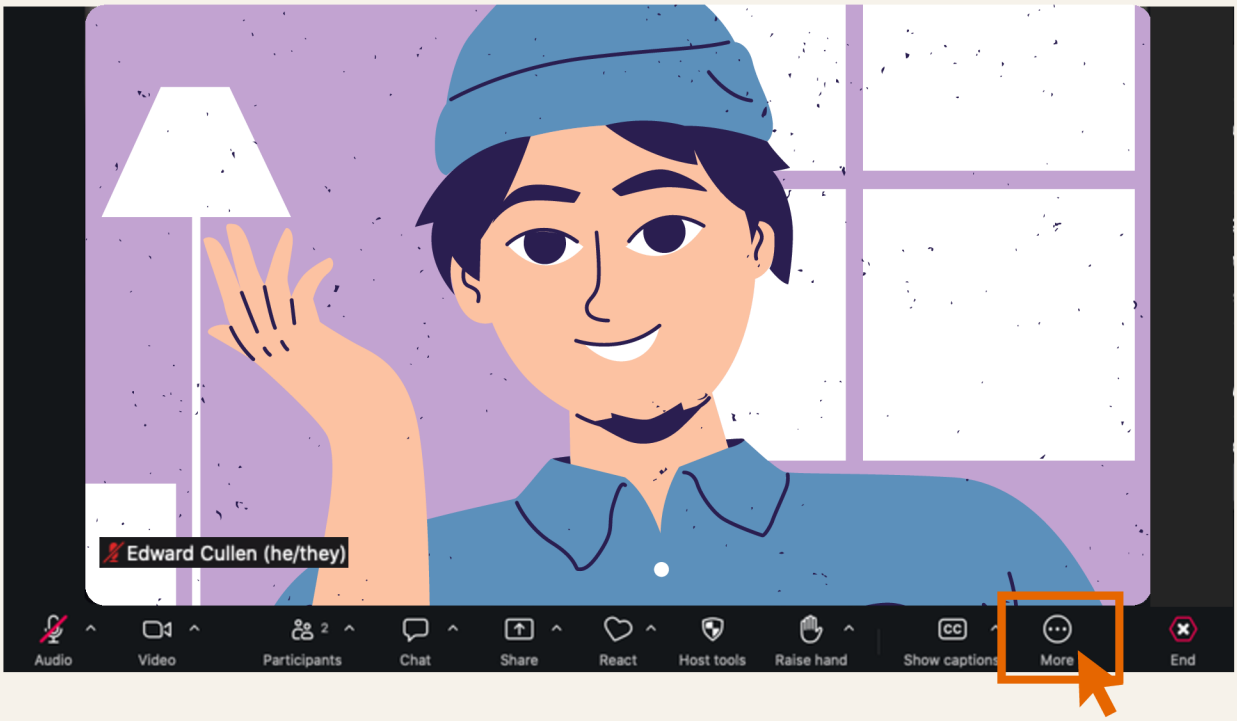


Asking to Unmute (Video + Participants Tab)

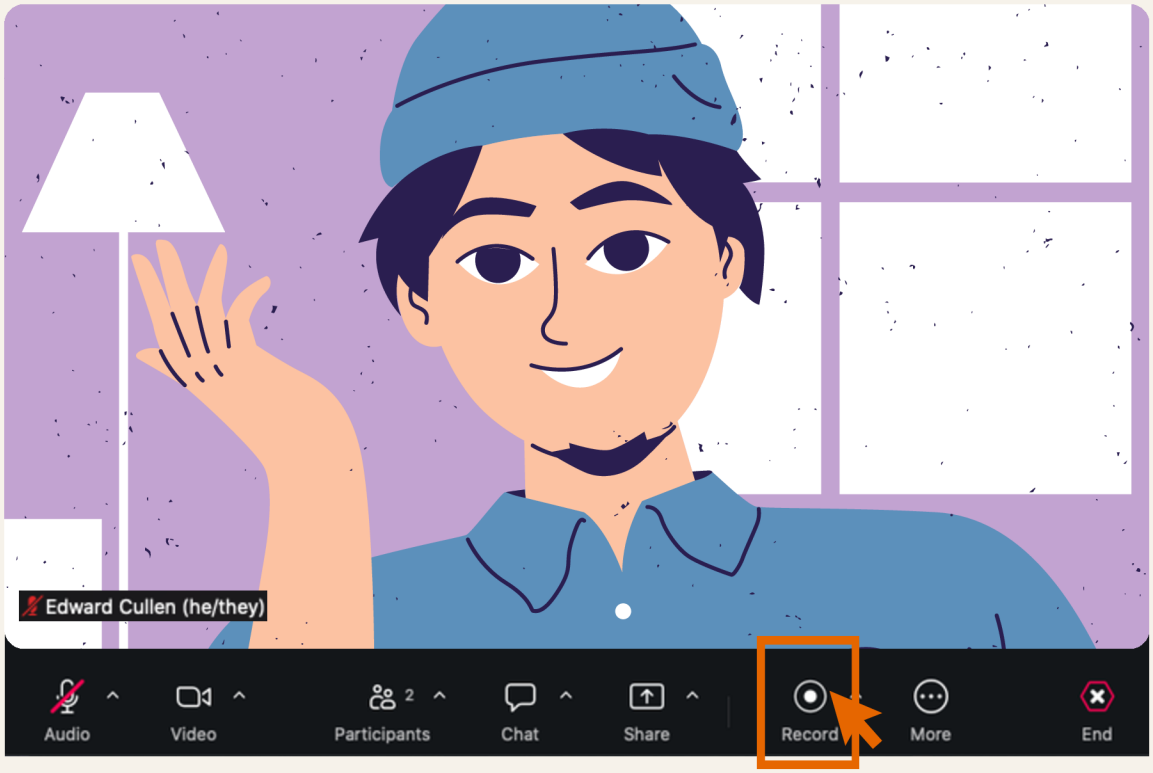




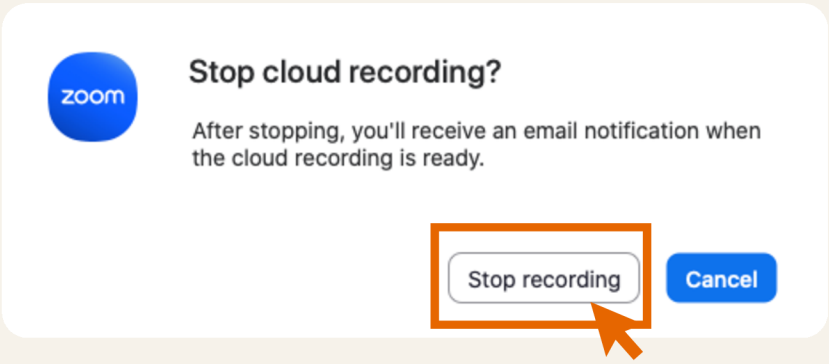
Start Recording



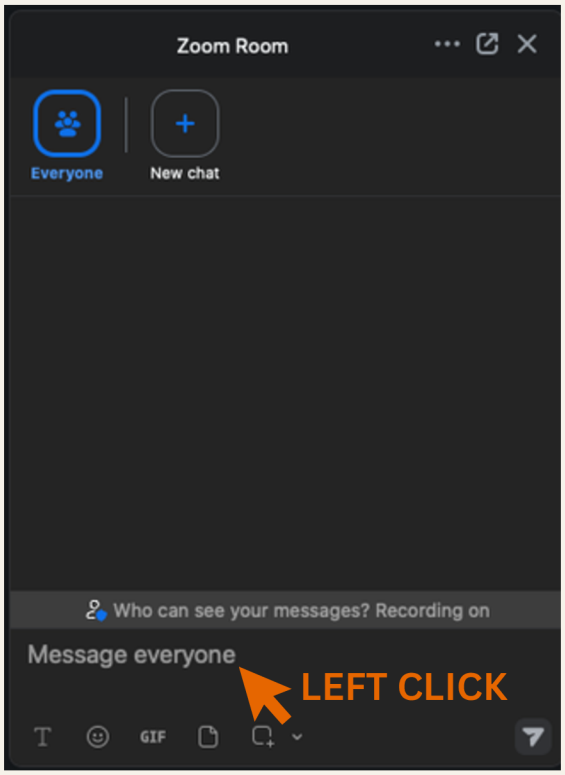
Pause / Resume Recording

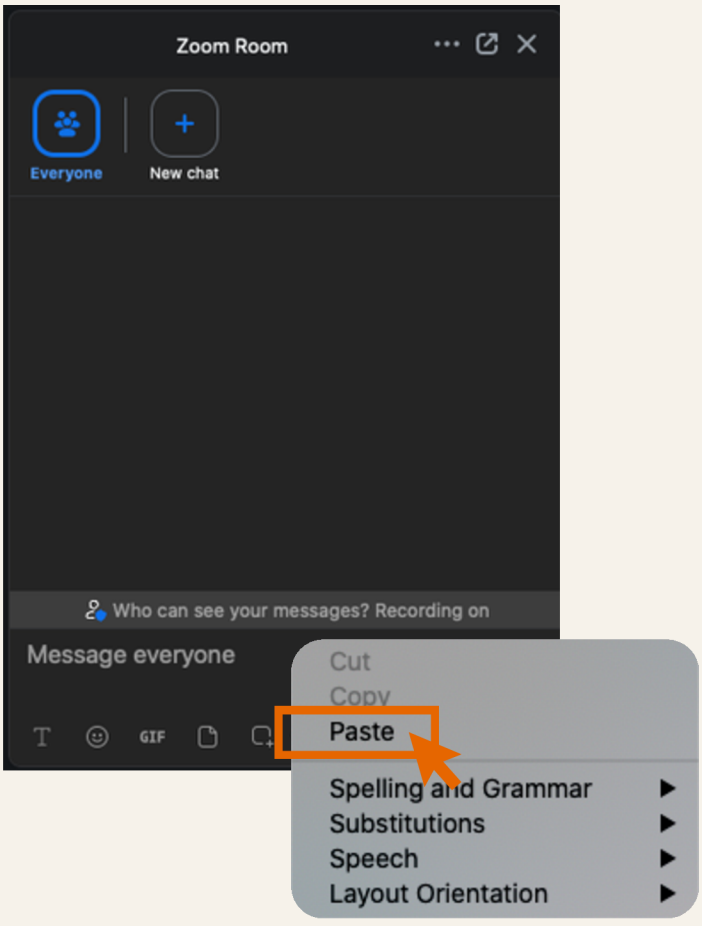


Stop Recording

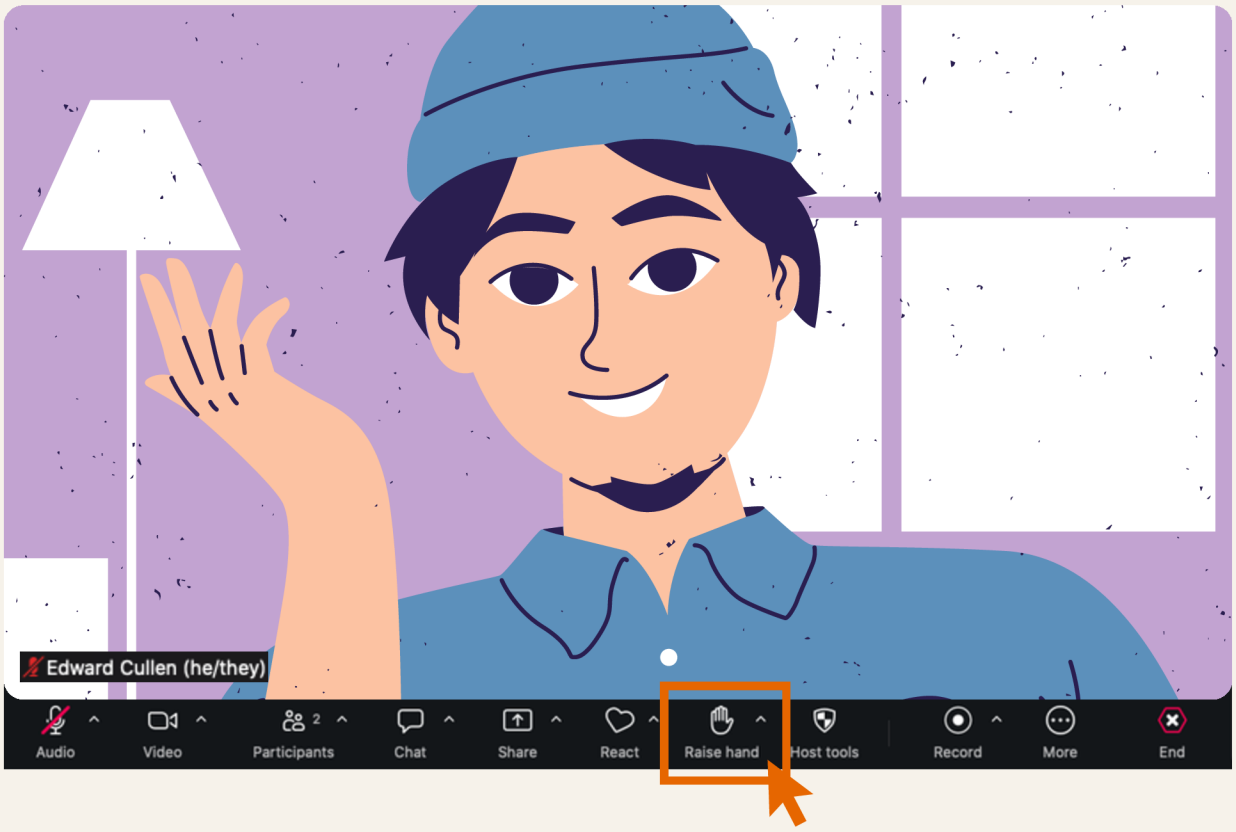


Copy / Paste into the Chat

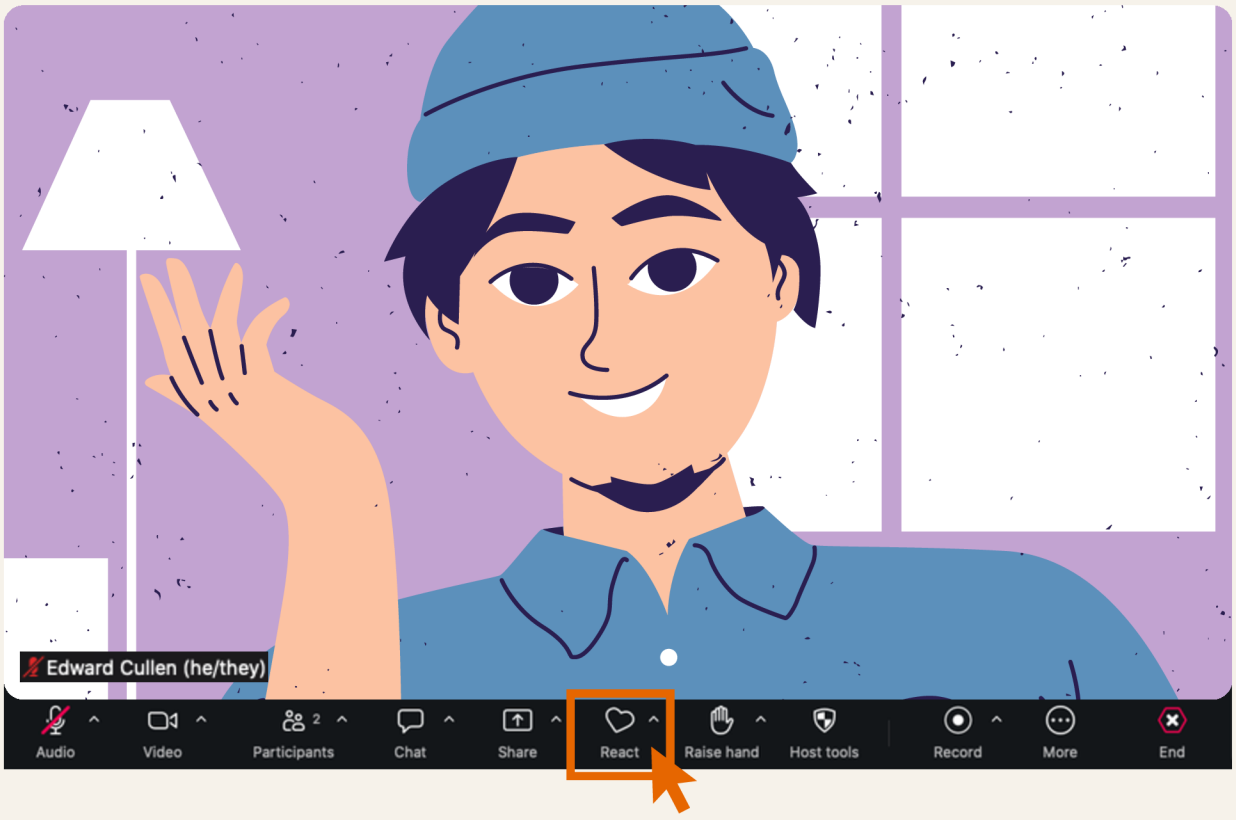




Raise / Lower Hand



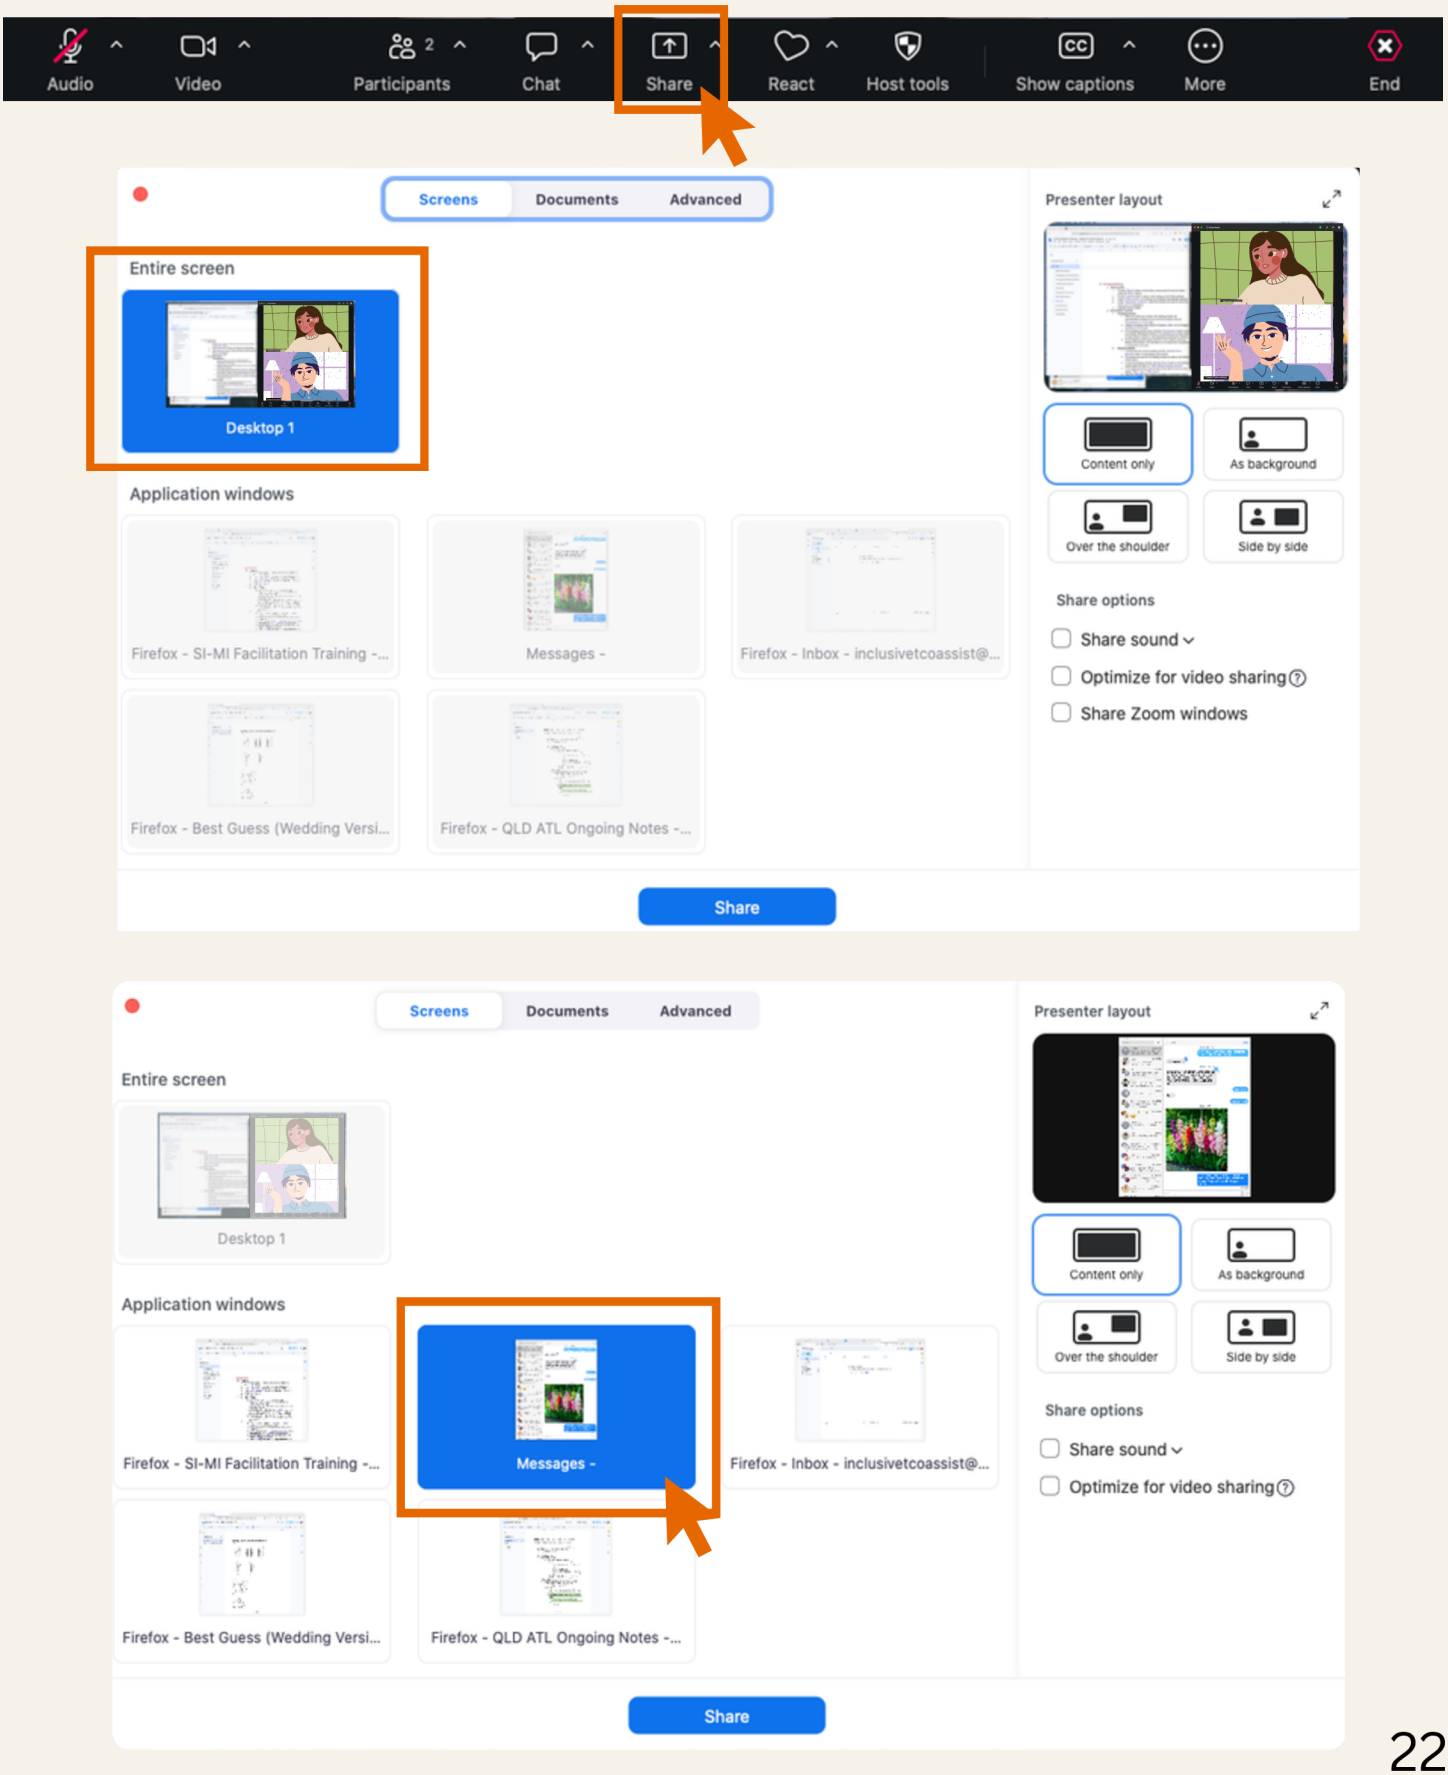
Reactions



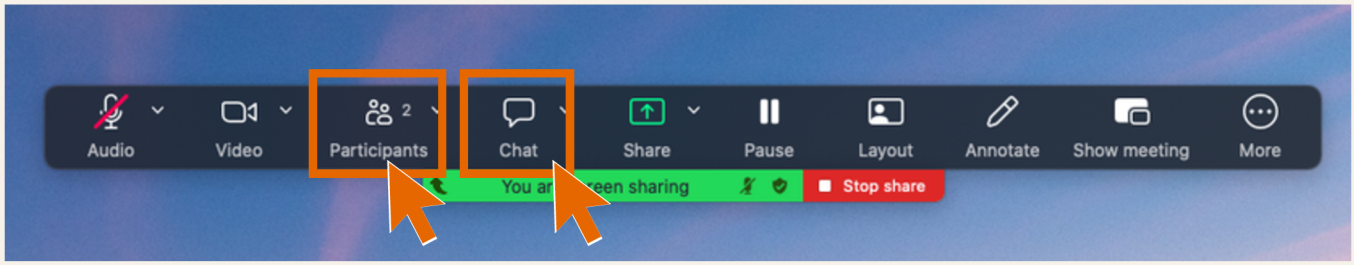
Edward Cullen (he/they)
Audio
Video
Participants
Chat
Share
React
Raise hand
Host tools
Record
More
End

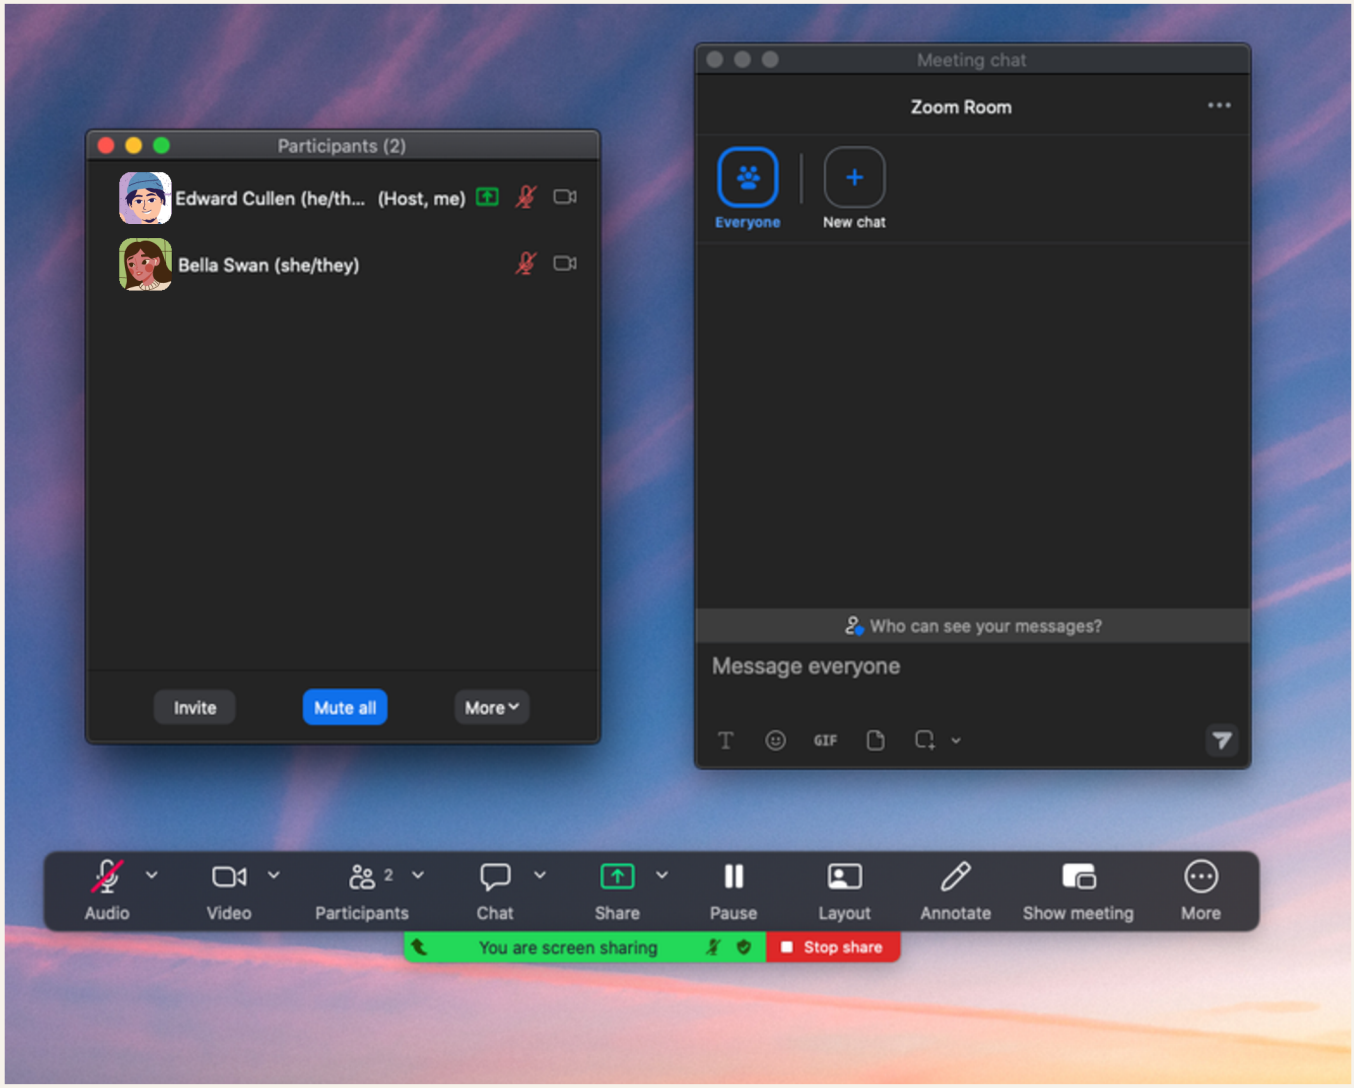
Send with effect
Reactions
Be right back
Edward Cullen (he/they)
Audio
Video
Participants
Chat
Share
React
Raise hand
Host tools
Record
More
End

Share Screen

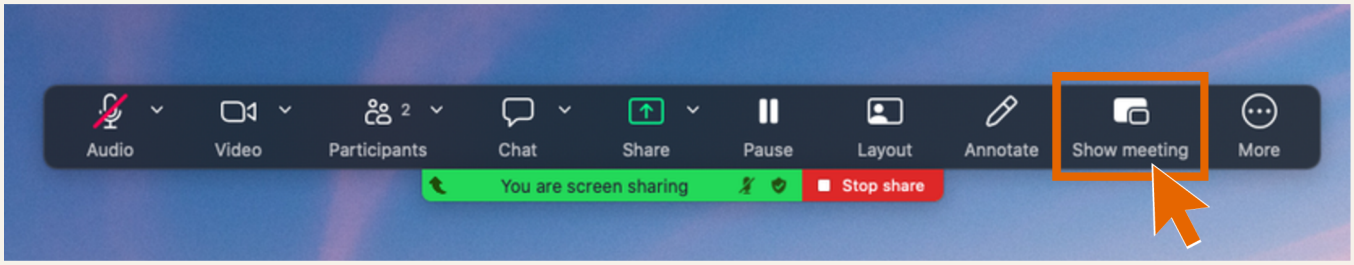


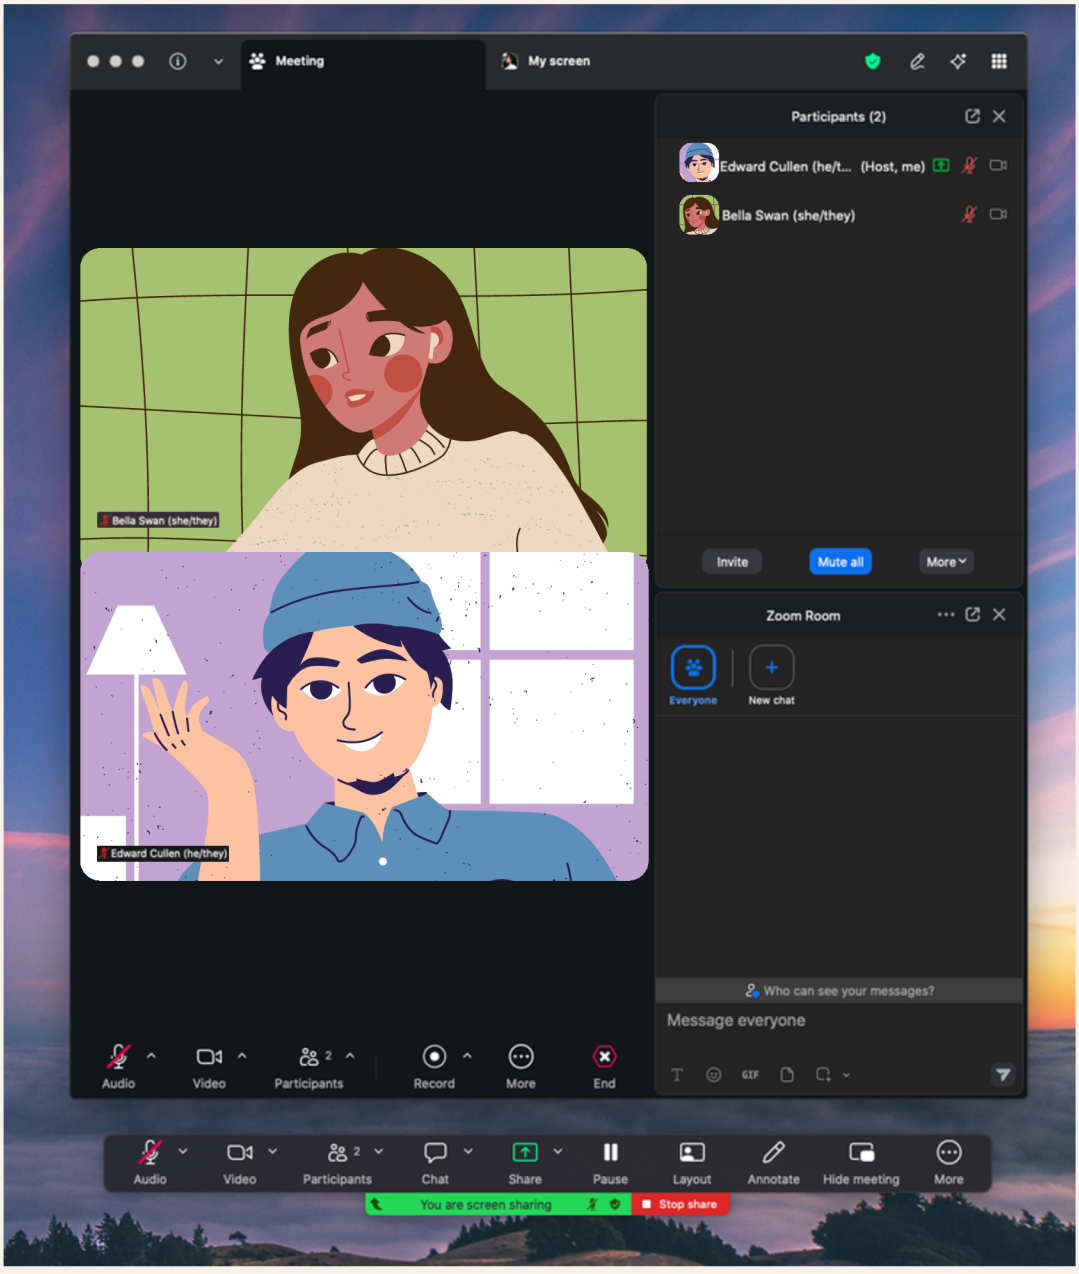
Screensharing - Floating Controls



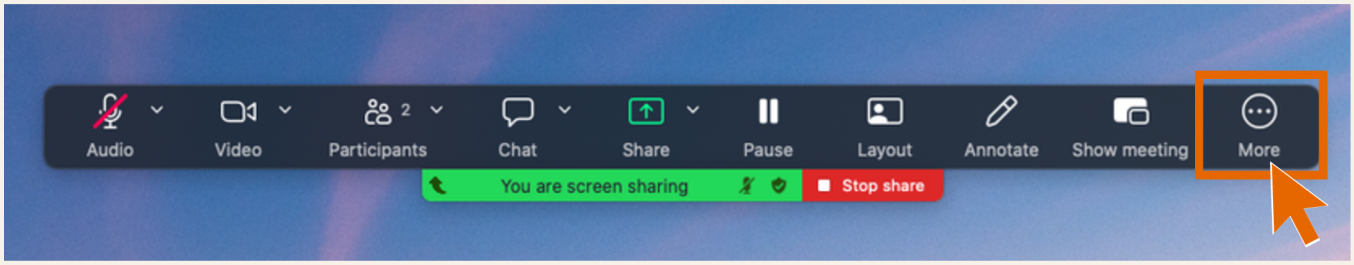


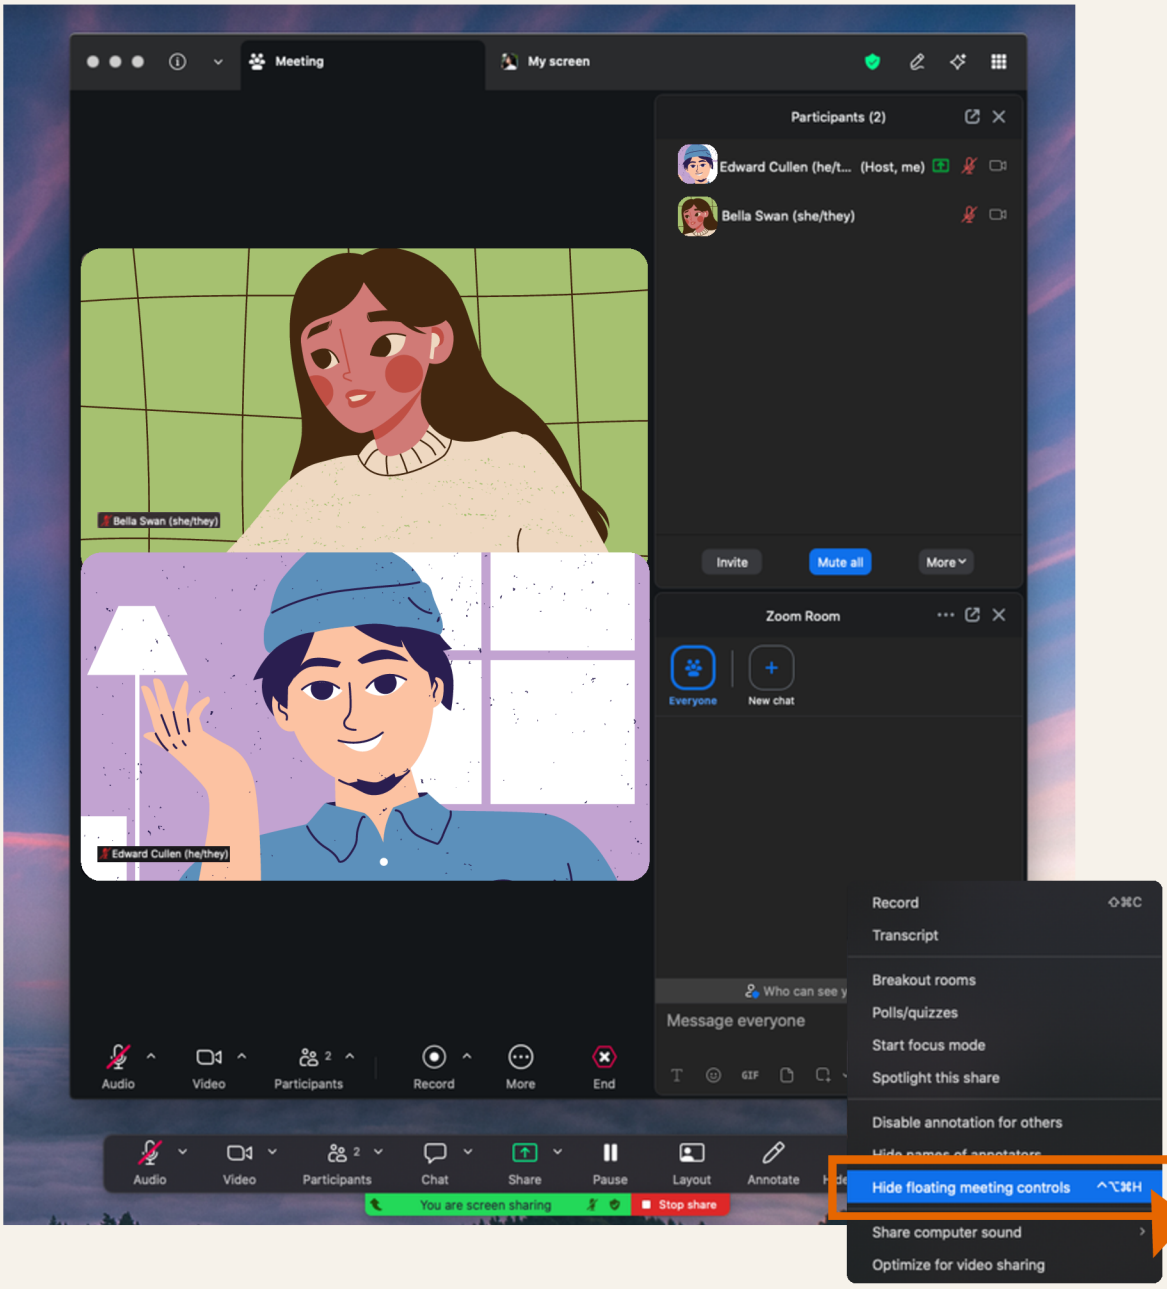
Screensharing - Show Meeting



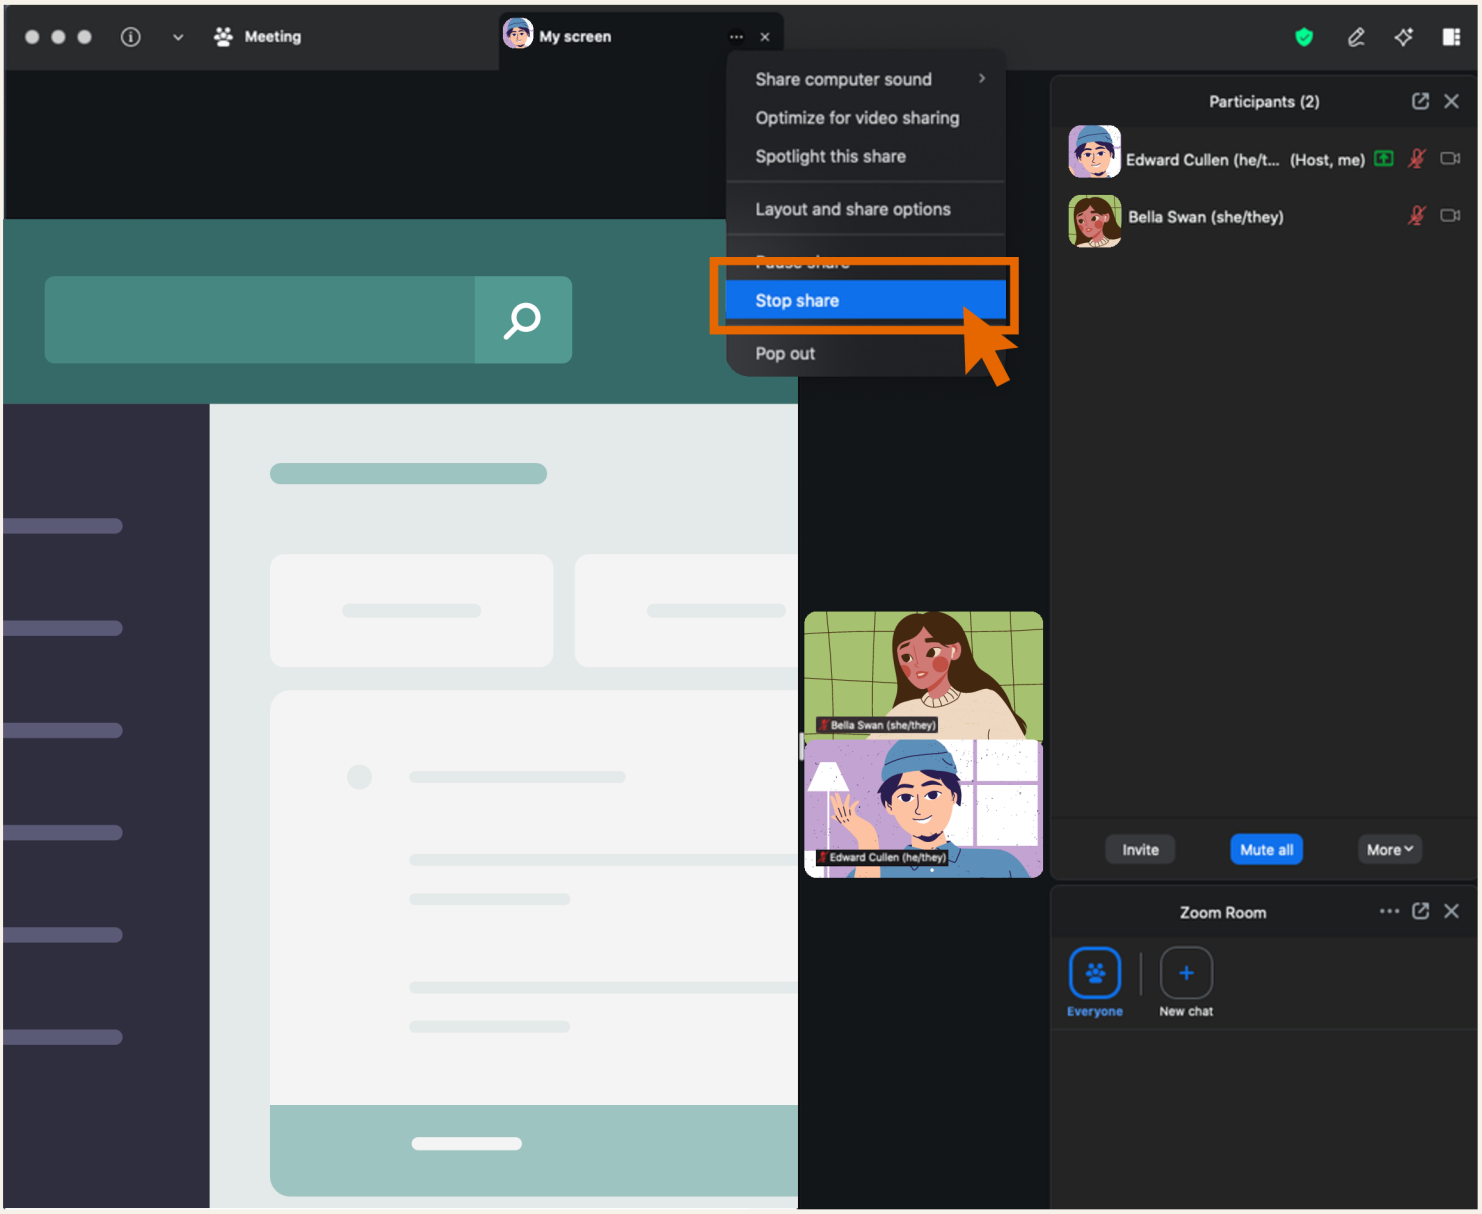


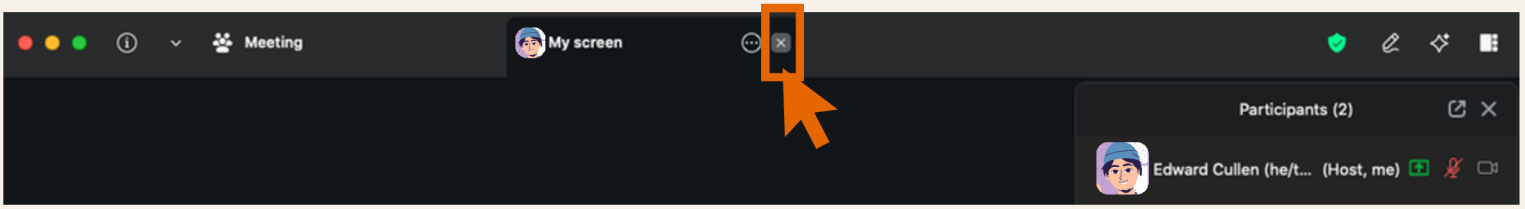
Screensharing - Hide Floating Controls



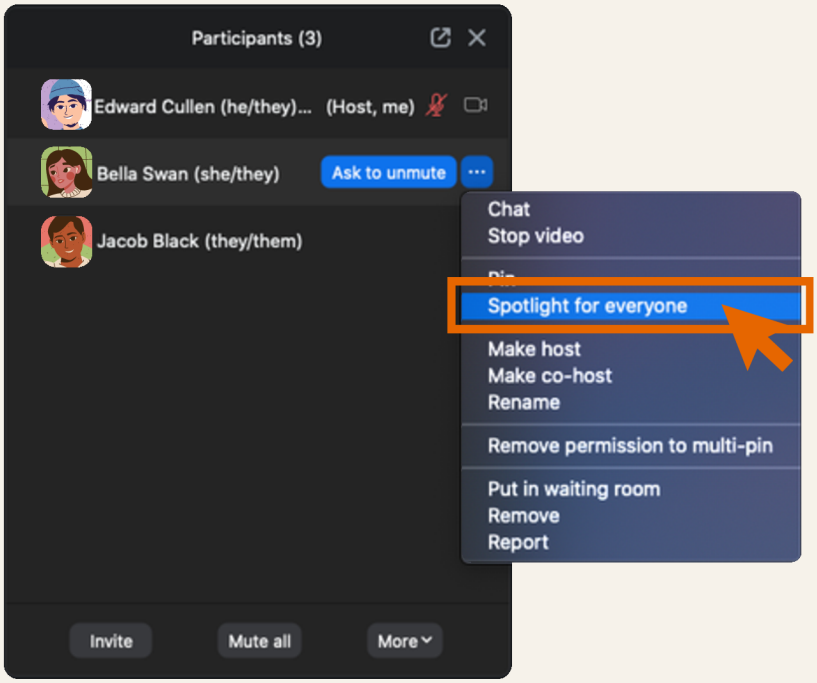


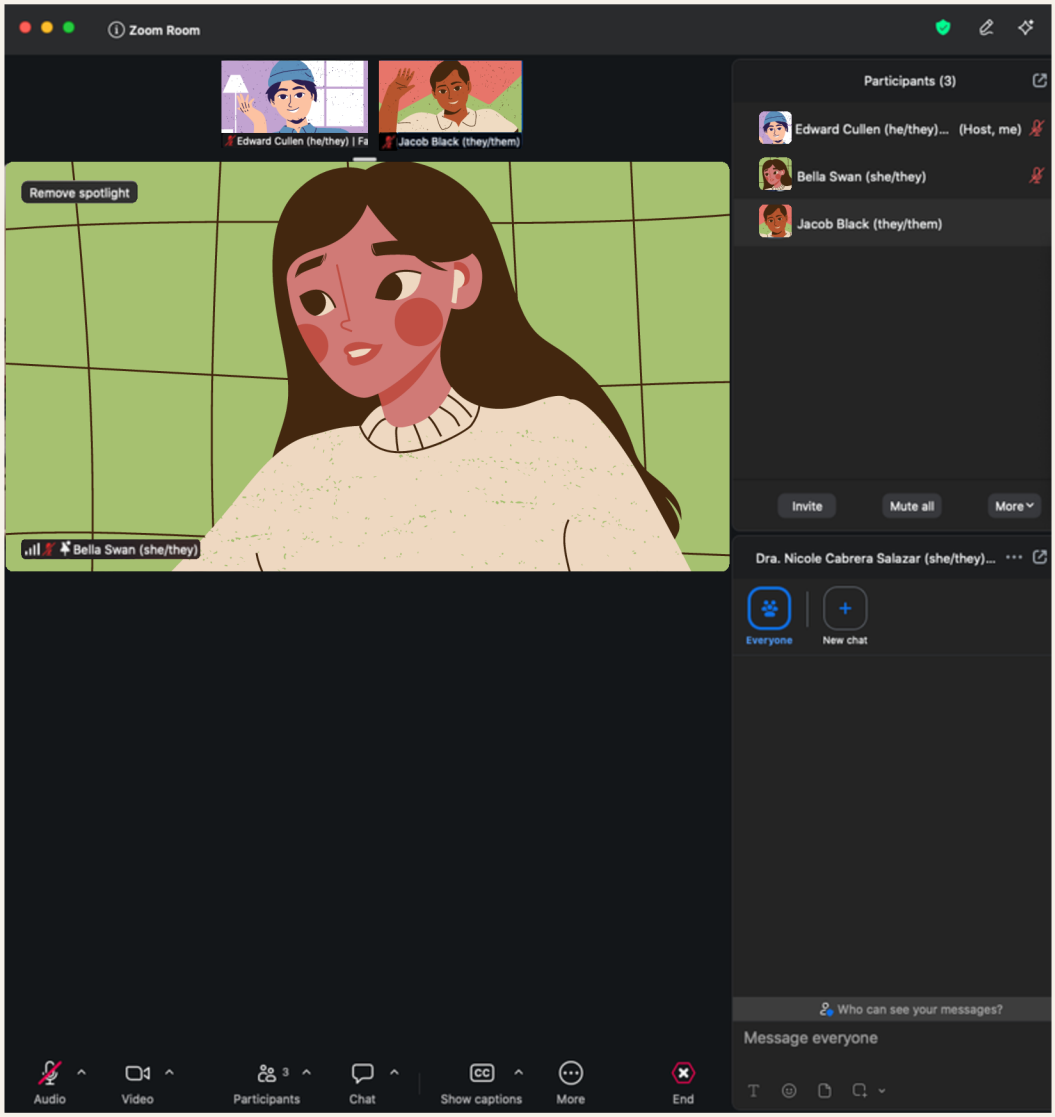
Stop Sharing



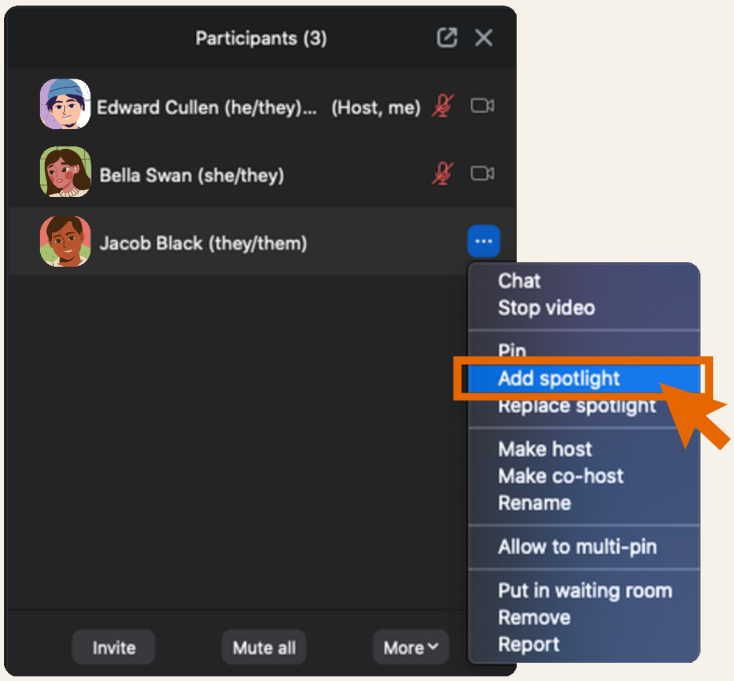


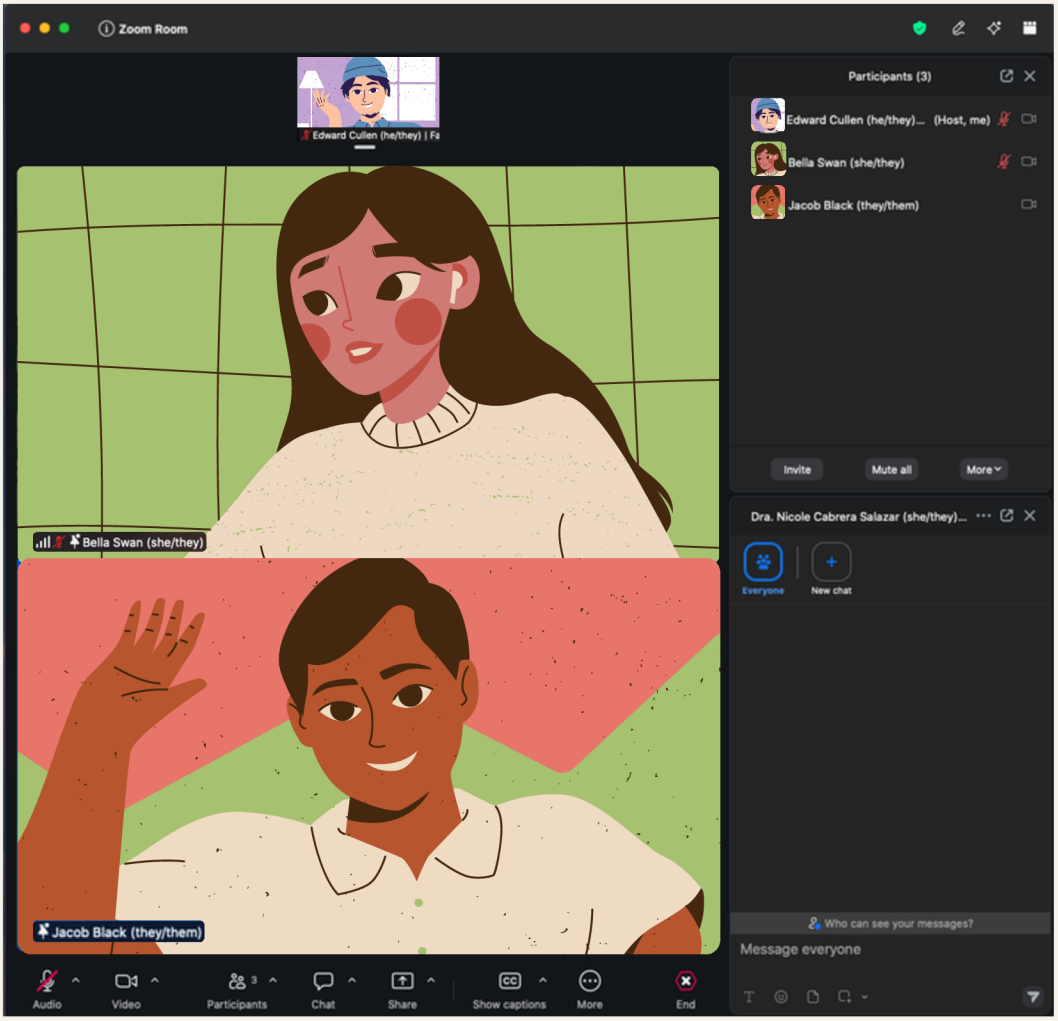
Spotlighting



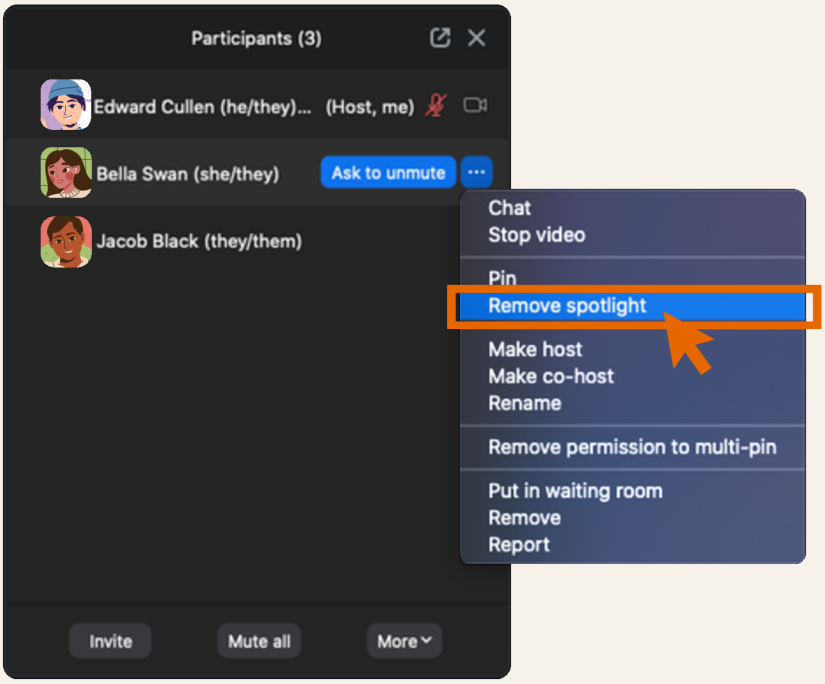


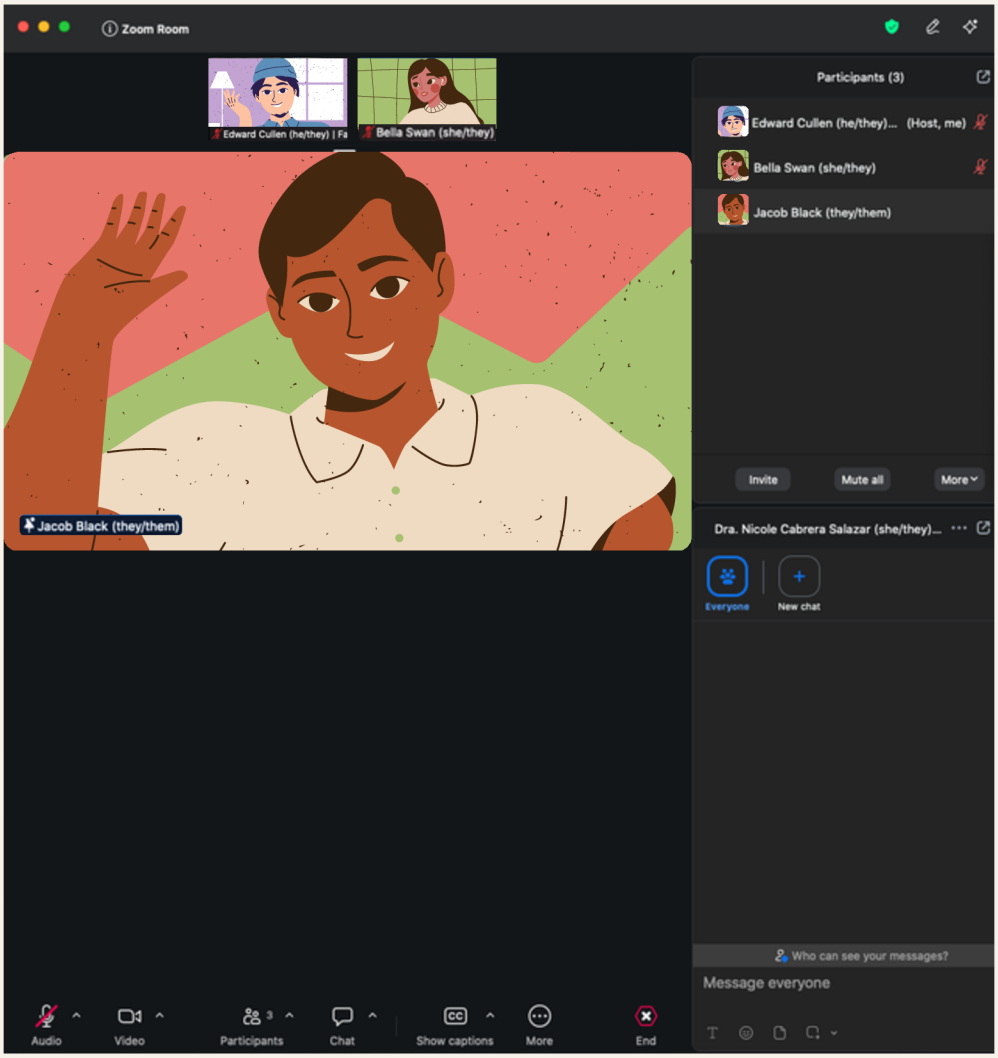
Add Spotlight





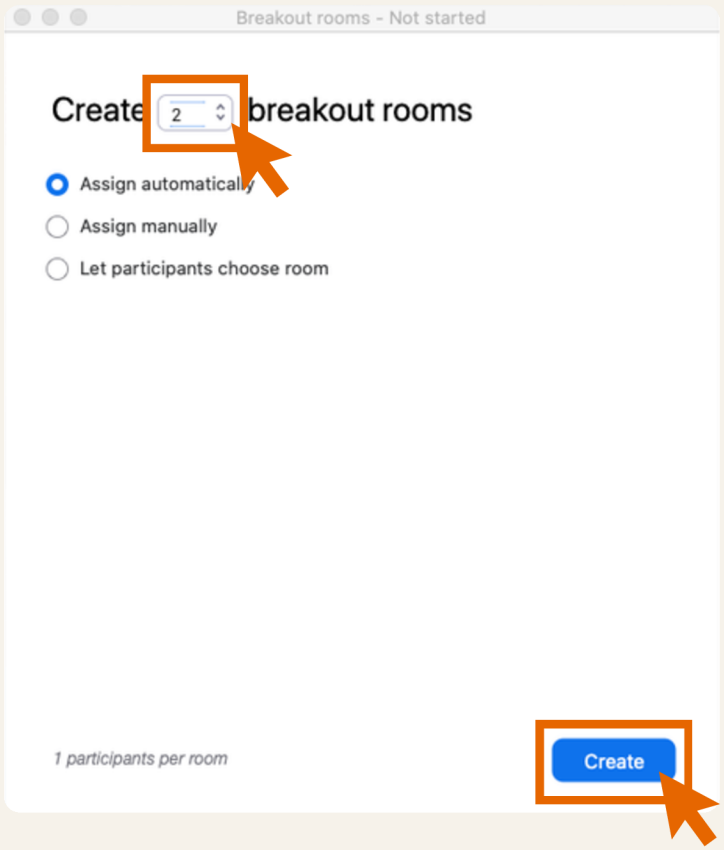
Remove Spotlight

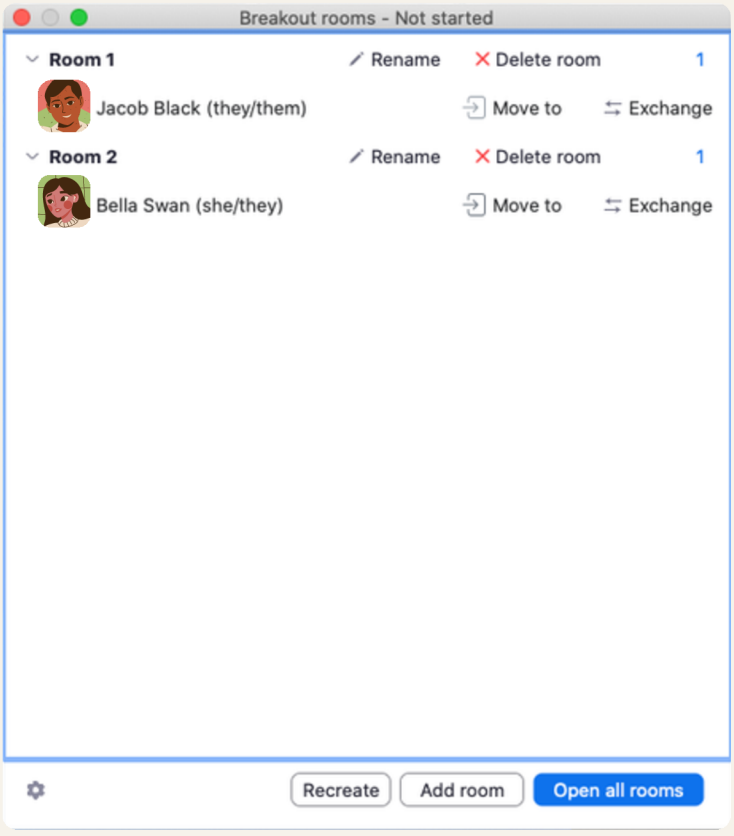




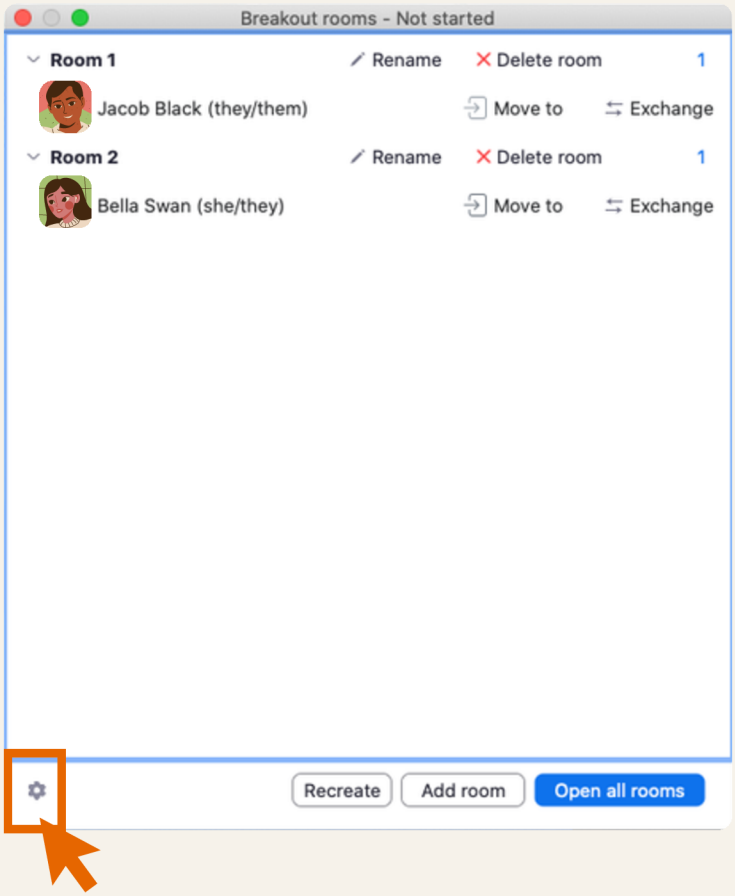
Create Breakout Room

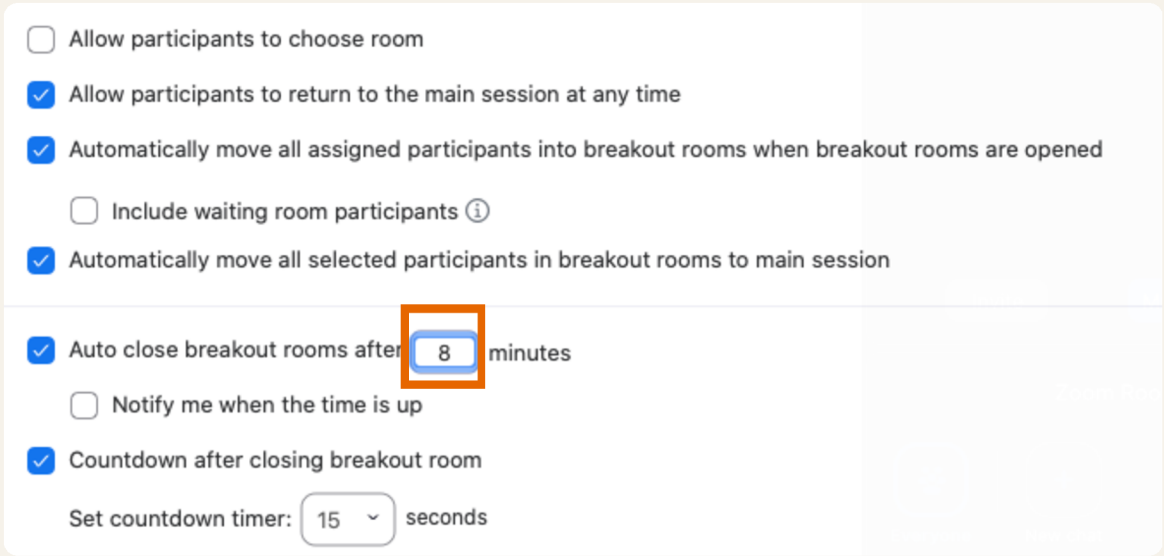
Create Breakout Room (cont.)



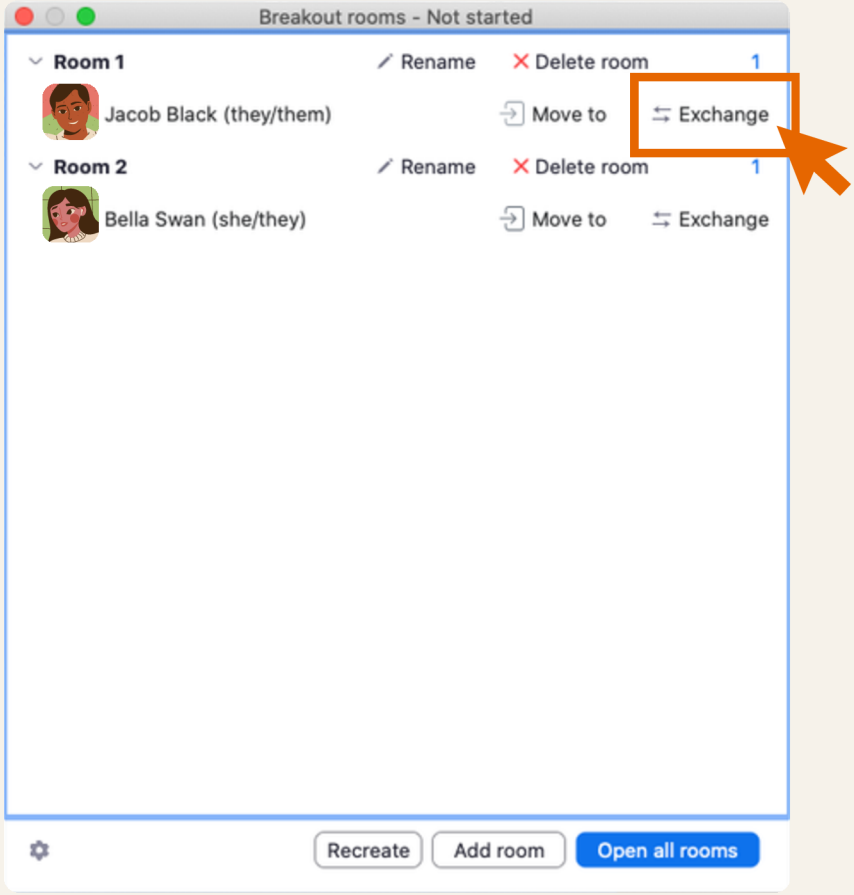


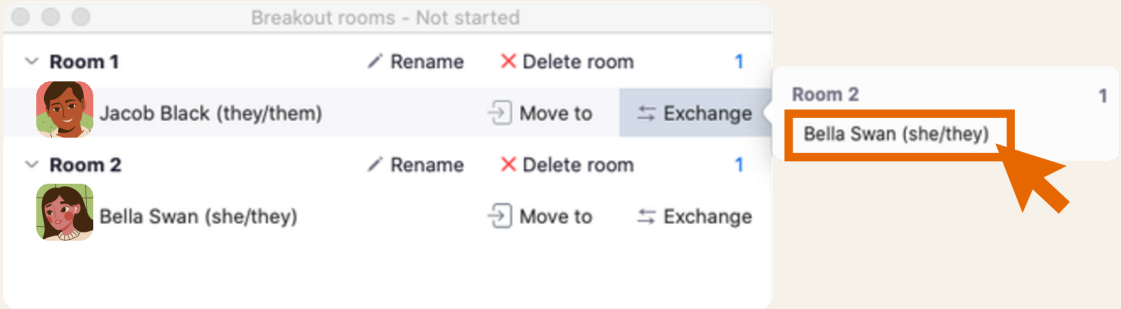
Breakout Room Settings

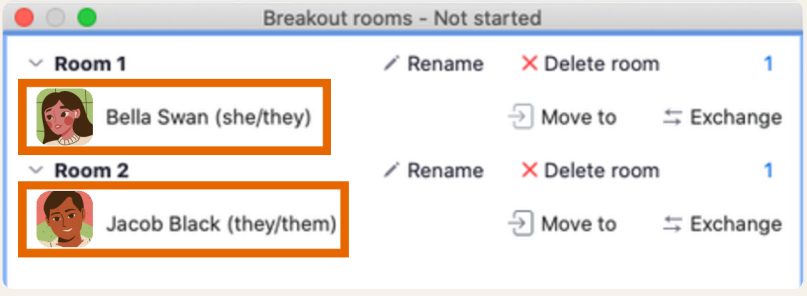




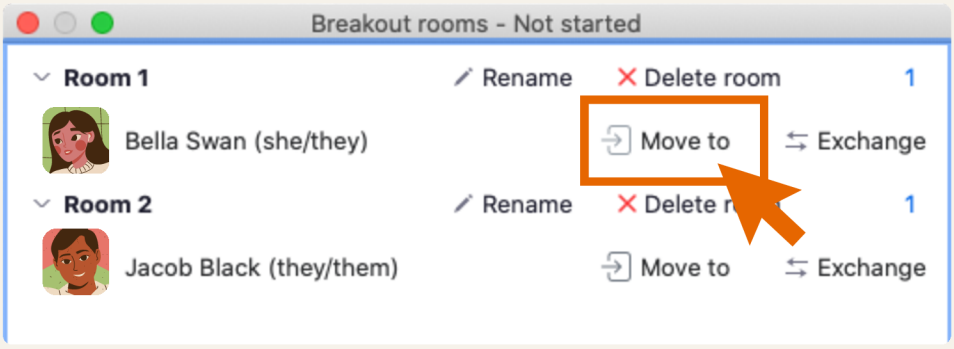
Exchange Participants

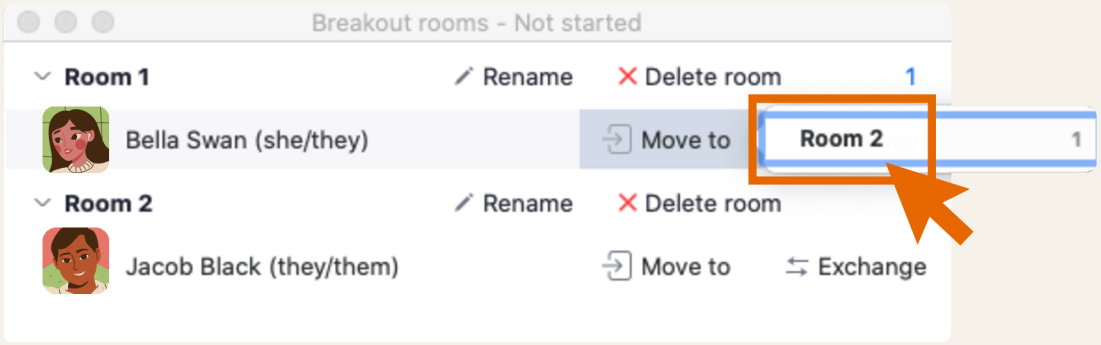


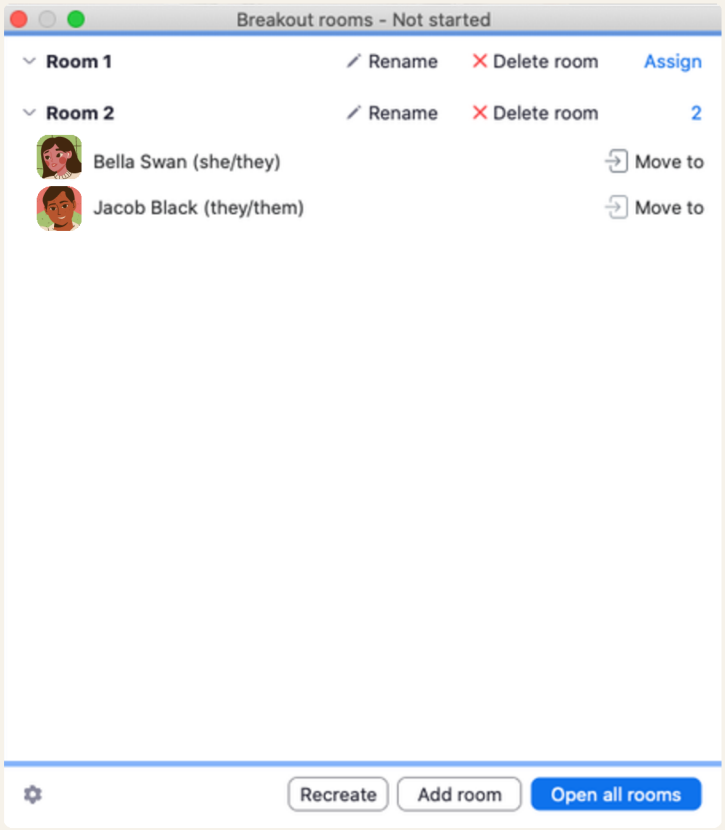




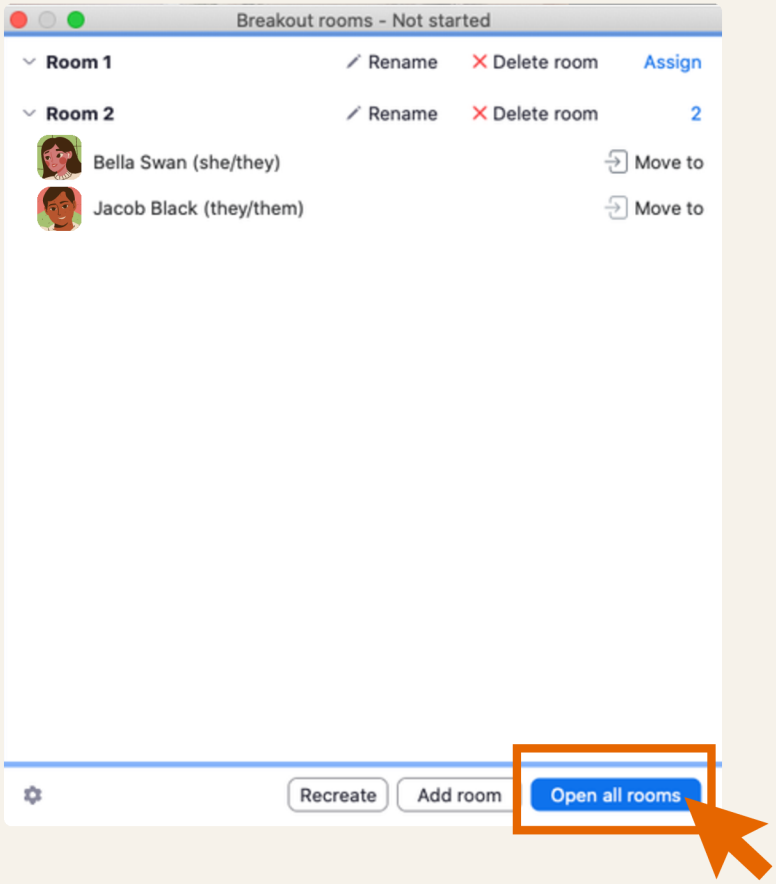
Move Participants

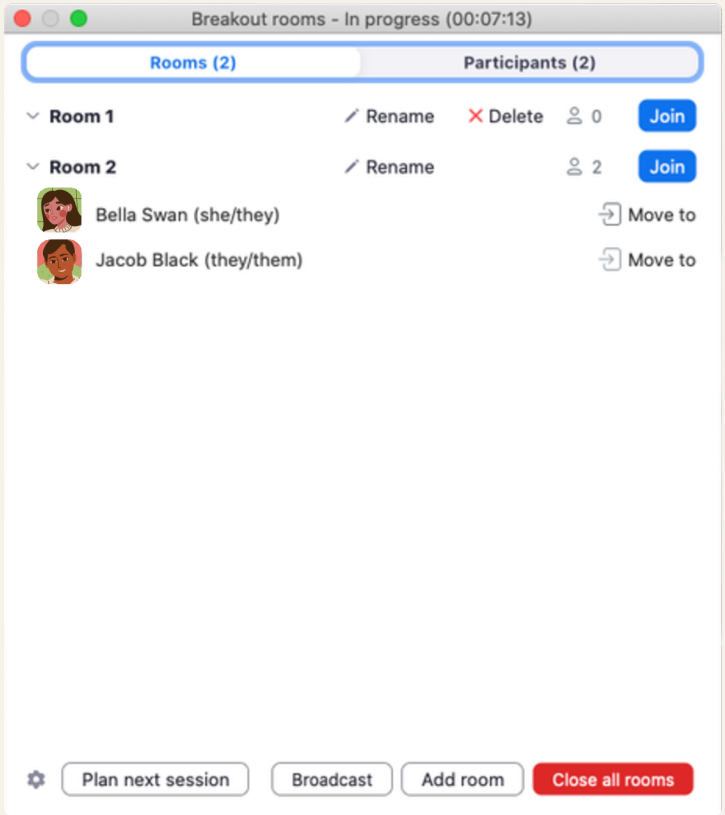




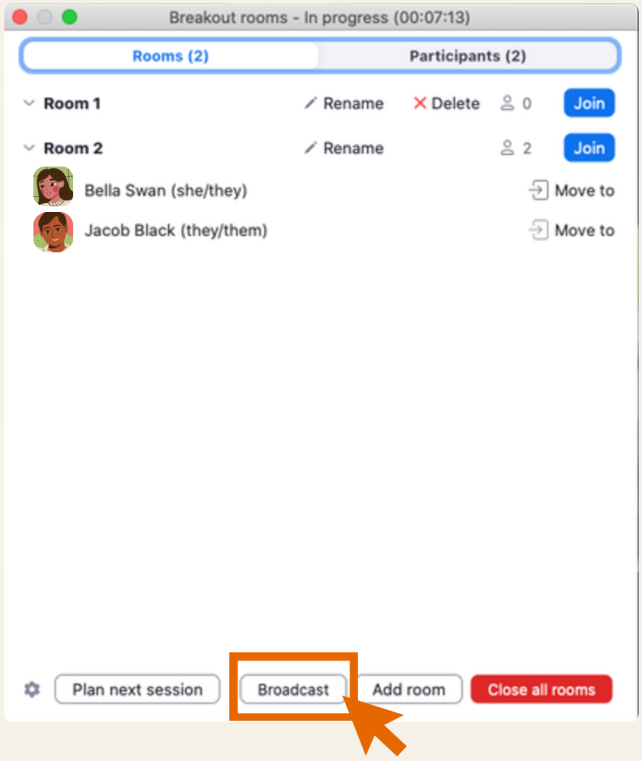


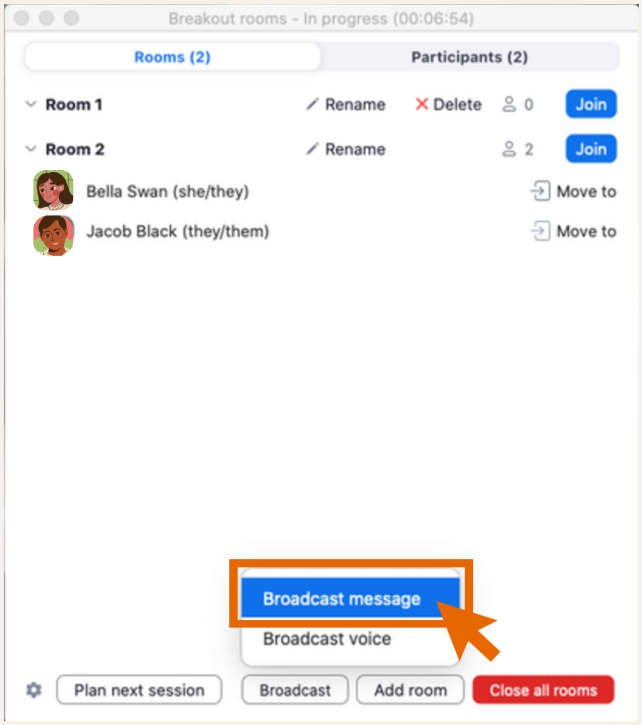
Open Breakout Rooms

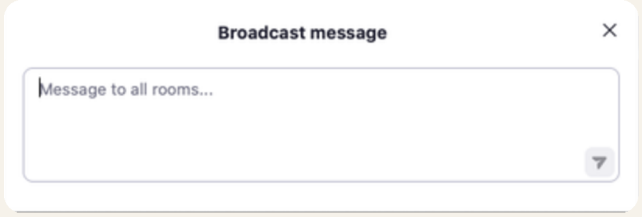




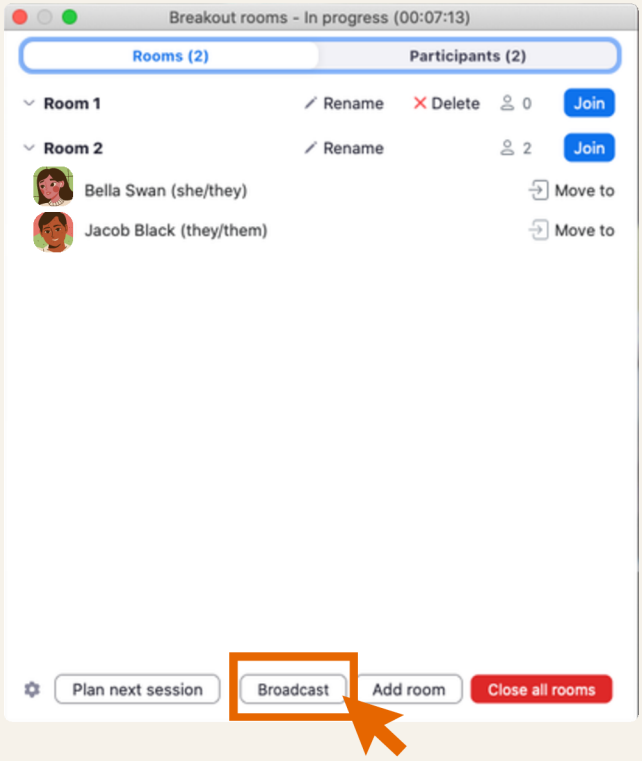
Broadcast Message (Text)

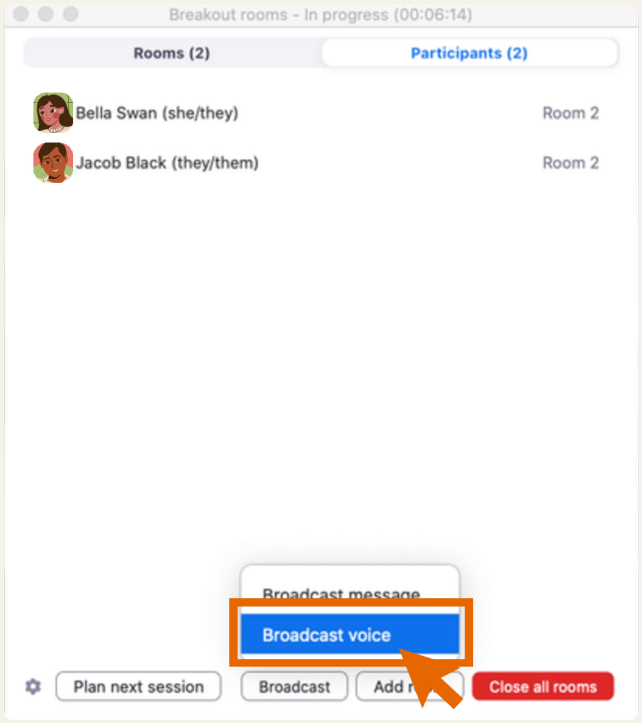


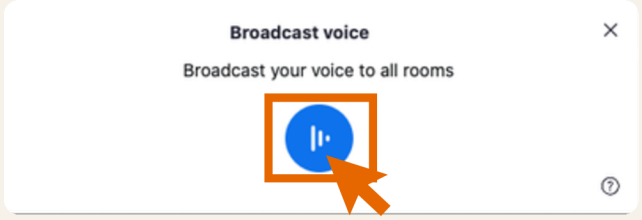




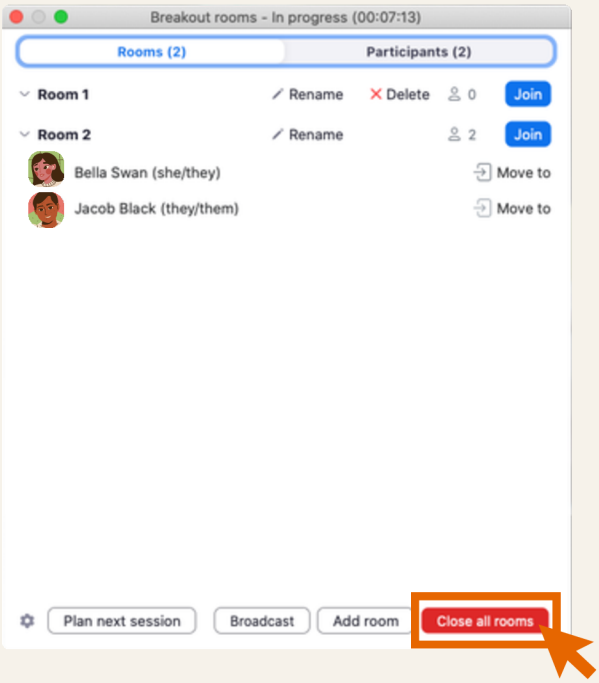
Broadcast Message (Voice)

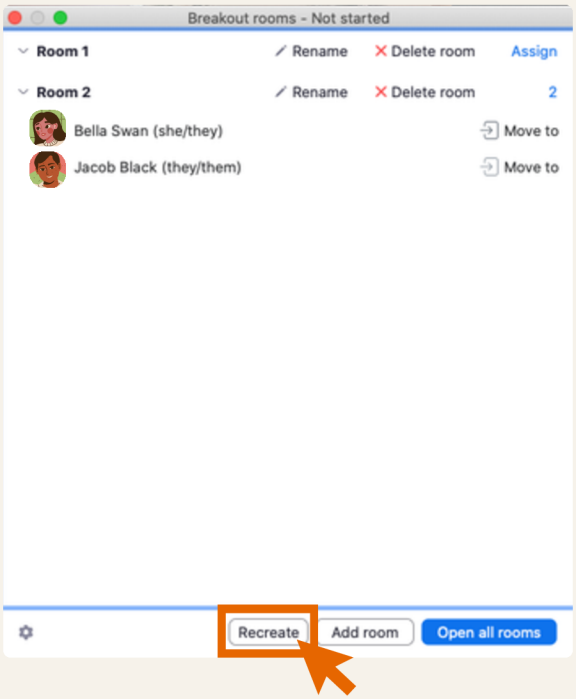


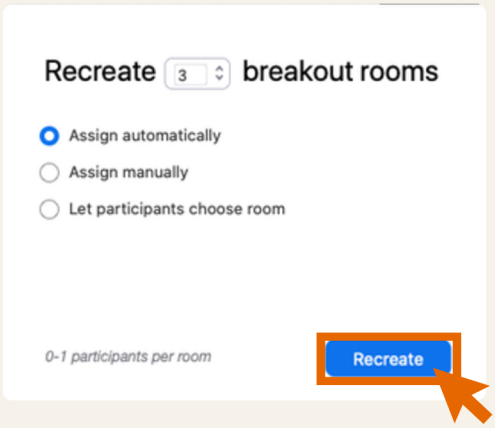




Recreate Breakout Rooms







Day 1
Session 3:
Power Dynamics

Types of Power

Formal (Positional)

Power granted to a person due to official titles, ranks, or positions.

Informal (Social)

Power that is held which may be not immediately visible or officially assigned.

Source: National Implementation Research Network

Types of Informal / Social Power

Expert

Individuals with deep knowledge and extensive experience in a particular field

Cultural / Systemic

Individuals who benefit from institutions; inherent traits grant more access to resources

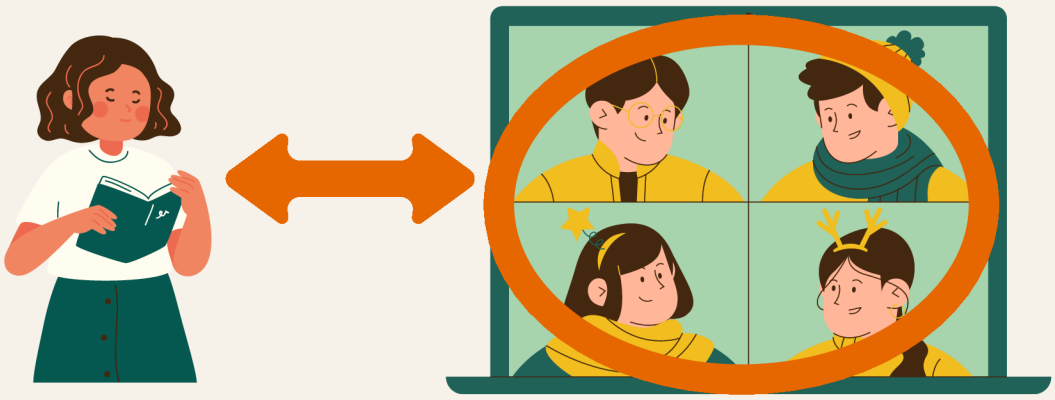
Referent

Highly respected and admired individuals who are able to have influence over others

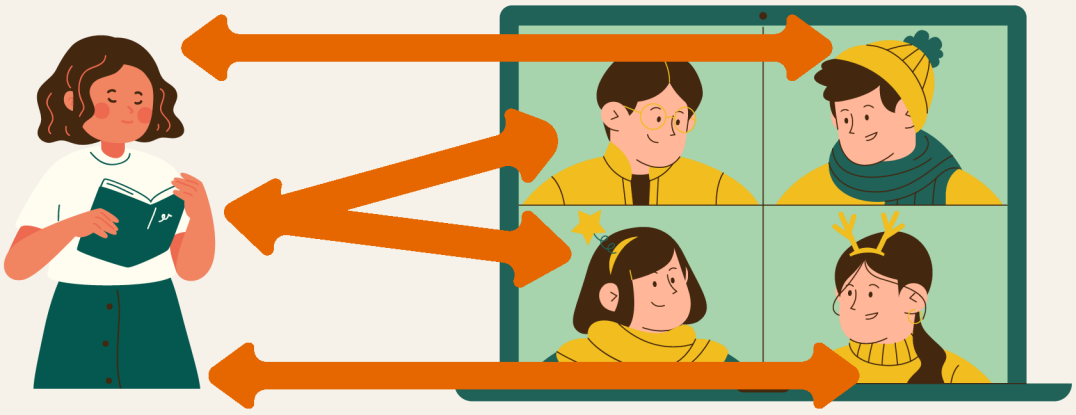
Collective

Groups with shared values or identities working toward a common goal

Relational Dynamics



Facilitator - Group



Facilitator - Individuals

Participant - Participant

Day 1
Session 4: The Art of Facilitation

The 4 Response Archetypes

Almost answers the question but then veers off slightly

Wanderer

Answers correctly, but takes up way too much time

Rambler

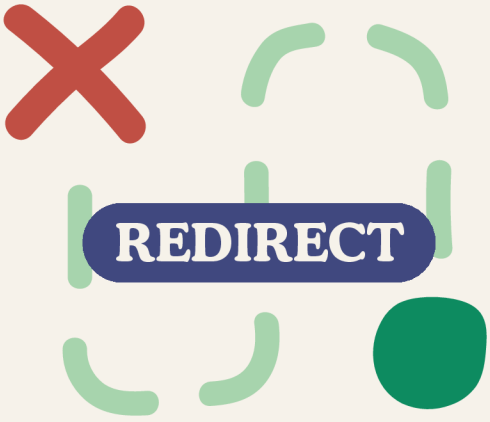
Goes off the rails, or may say something inappropriate

Derailer

Responds directly in a meaningful and insightful way

Archer

Response Validation Flowchart



Reflection Statements

"I hear what you're saying..."

"I see where you're coming from..."

"I get it, you're saying that..."

"Right, so what you're saying is..."

"Totally. You're talking about..."

"If I heard you correctly..."

"Yes, what I'm hearing is..."

Empathizing Statements

"Thank you so much for sharing that..."

"That makes a lot of sense..."

"That does sound (frustrating / difficult / upsetting)..."

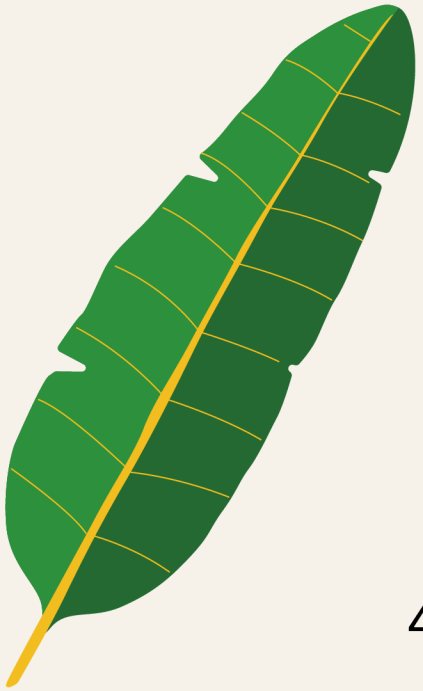
"Of course you would respond that way..."

"I would probably react similarly..."

"I can see why you'd feel that way..."

"I can relate to that..."

"It makes sense that..."



Redirecting Statements - Benign

"Let's get back to the original question..."

"You're almost there. Does anyone want to jump in?"

"That has more to do with X, does anyone want to answer Y..."

"That's a great point. Now let's go back to..."

"Okay, what else do we think?"

"That's an interesting idea. Now what about [restate question]?"

Redirecting Statements - Disruptive

"Let me stop you right there..."

"Let's pause and see if anyone else has thoughts..."

"In the interest of time, I'd like to go back to..."

"I think we're getting off-topic..."

"I want to make sure we stay on track..."

"May I interrupt you for a moment?"

"That's beyond the scope of this conversation. Let's reorient..."

Affirming Statements

"Yes! This is exactly why..."

"You're absolutely right that..."

"I love the way you phrased / described..."

"That is such an astute / insightful observation..."

"What you said about X is a perfect example of..."

"You hit the nail on the head..."

"Wow, yes. You really captured the essence of..."

Breakout Session - Validation Practice

Instructions

Break into groups of three. Quickly assign a facilitator, participant, and observer.

- Facilitators ask one question and guide the discussion using the flowchart and statements provided
- Participants respond as a Wanderer, Rambler, Derailer, or Archer
- Observers provide feedback (positive and critical)
- Reassign roles and practice again

Facilitator Questions

1. What is one positive experience that you had as a student?
2. Name your favorite hobby and 3 reasons you enjoy it.
3. If you won the lottery, what would you do with the money?
4. What is one thing more humans should be doing and why?